Membrane 3.

Pardon, at the instance of A. king of Scotland, and his queen, to Simon de Halton for the death of Alan Brian of Spalding, and of any consequent outlawry. Totum pardonavit ad instanciam predictorum.

Aug. 23. Waltham. Mandate to Master William de Merewa, clerk and proctor of Walter, sometime bishop of Durham, to send to the king by Robert de la Ware, Richard de Vernun and Nicholas de Saumer, king's serjeants at arms, the 300 marks which he ought to pay for the bishop on the morrow of St. Bartholomew, part of the fine of 1000 marks made on behalf of the bishop for the sequestration of the churches belonging to the bishop of Carlisle, in the diocese of Durham; and when the king has received this money, he will cause him to have his letters patent of receipt.

Grant to Richard de Freitmantell, keeper of the manors of Cokham and Braye and Kenyton, and of the forest of Windsor, whom he lately commanded to make some works in the castle of Windesore, and elsewhere, out of the issues of his bailiwick, that if he is removed from his bailiwick and have spent more in the said works than his farm, the king will restore to him whatever he shall have laid out in the said works or other business of the king beyond the amount of his said farm.

Simple protection, for three years, for William de Renevall, vicar of the church of Ros.

At the instance of Master William de Sancto Martino, archdeacon of Rochester.

Aug. 28. Winchester. Licence for Hugh, the prior, and the convent of Durham, to elect a bishop, by Henry de Eggleston, the chamberlain, and Nicholas the almoner, their fellow monks, bringing to the king their letters patent announcing the death of Walter their late bishop.

Aug. 30. Winchester. Acknowledgment of the payment by the executors of the will of the said Walter into the wardrobe by order of the king to Aubrey de Fiscampis and Peter de Wintonia, clerks and keepers of the wardrobe, on Monday the morrow of the Decollation of John the Baptist 44 Henry III, of 300 marks of the fine of 1000 marks which they lately made on behalf of the bishop for the sequestration of the churches belonging to the bishopric of Carlisle in the diocese of Durham.

Mandate to the said executors, that in the payment of the remaining 700 marks they shall deliver to Master John Mansell, guardian of the bishopric of Durham, the better oxen, cows, sheep and other stock by lawful appraisement to that value, for the stocking of the lands of William de Fortibus, late earl of Albemarle, now in the king's hands, with ploughs (carucis) and other stock.
