Oct. 7. Windsor. Safe conduct, until the Purification, for John Comyn and those whom he brings with him to the king in England.

By K. and the earl of Gloucester.

Oct. 8. Windsor. Mandate to R. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, Henry son of the king of Almain, the king's nephew, R. le Bigod, earl of Norfolk and marshal of England, H. le Bigod, justiciary of England and John Maunsell, treasurer of York, requesting them to receive the said John and make him their letters patent of safe conduct until that date.

By K. and the earl of Gloucester.

Simple protection without clause, for seven years, for the hospital of St. Laurence, Tresk, and the brethren thereof.

Notification that the king received on the day of St. Edward, 44 Henry III, at his feast which he held then at Westminster, Henry son of the king of Almain, his nephew, as the attorney of Simon de Muntfort, earl of Leicester, to serve for him at the said feast, as pertains to the service of the stewardship. In testimony whereof the king has made to the said Simon these letters patent by the counsel of his magnates (hauz homes) of his council; and this was done in the year and on the day above said. French.

This letter was read and approved before the king in the wardrobe, there being present Edward son of the king, Henry son of the king of Almain, the earl of Gloucester, the earl of Oxford, H. le Bygod, the justiciary, J. Mansel, R. Walerand and others, and sealed by their order. [Fædæræ.]

Oct. 12. Westminster. Presentation of John de Wyham to the vicarage of Herteburne in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Durham; directed to G. archbishop of York or his official in the bishopric of Durham.

Oct. 13. Westminster. Pardon at the instance of the king's son John de Britannia, to Henry Paryz for the death of Thomas Gyrard and of his consequent outlawry; as it appears by inquisition made by Henry de Rathonia that he killed him by misadventure.

By K. and the justiciary.

Oct. 17. Westminster. Acknowledgment of the payment by Peter de Brus, one of the two heirs of William de Lancastre, by the king's special mandate into the wardrobe to Aubrey de Fiscampis and Peter de Wintonia, clerks of the wardrobe, on Sunday before St. Luke the Evangelist, 44 Henry III, 100 marks for the expenses of the household of the terms of Easter and Michaelmas last, of the 100 marks which the said Peter ought to pay yearly to William de Valencia, the king's brother, at the said terms at the New Temple, London, as his portion of the debts which William de Lancastre owed to the king and which the king had granted to his said brother; and the king will save the said Peter harmless against his said brother.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to give him a quittance for the said 100 marks.
