Protection, for ten years, for Raymond Gumbaud and Robert his brother and Mary their mother.

Dec. 17.
Paris.

Commission to Philip Basset and Roger de Thurk[elby] to enquire touching a complaint made on behalf of William and Augustin, sons of John son of William de Dunwico and Augustine son of Andrew of the same town that as they went from the house of the said John to their own inns in the High Street, Richard Brun, Ralph (sic) Brun, John Brun, Philip Brun and their accomplices assaulted them with arms and drawn swords, and when they, to avoid death, fled to the church of All Saints of that town, Richard, Edmund (sic), John and Philip followed them with the said arms and swords, and assaulted and wounded them, so that they killed the said Edmund, Brun and John Brun in self defence. The sheriff of Suffolk is to provide jurors, and is not to permit the possessions of the said William, Augustin and Augustin to be touched by himself or any other until the truth of this matter is made manifest.

By R. earl of Gloucester, J. Mansel and R. Walerand.

Dec. 19.
Paris.

Licence for Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, to enclose his town of Suwald co. Suffolk with a wall and crenellate it if he will, and keep it so enclosed to him and his heirs for ever.

By K. the earl of Albemarle, J. Mansel and R. Walerand.

Safe conduct, for three weeks from the octaves of Easter, for Reynold de Pontibus and Margaret his wife and those of theirs whom they bring with them, in coming through the king's power to Bordeaux to sue their right before Edward, the king's son, or his seneschal of Gascony, on the day in the quinzaine of Easter which the king has appointed for them.

This letter was given to Bertram Kardilak in the presence of Sir R. Walerand Bertram de Bevil and Gaillard de Solio.

Grant to John de Brehusa that he may plead and sue his right in the king's name touching the manor of Dodinton before the king in his court against the prior of Wenlak, so that he shall keep without any contradiction whatever he gets in the king's name from the said prior in the king's court in respect of the manor.

By R. earl of Gloucester, J. Mansel and R. Walerand.

MEMBRANE 5.

Dec. 20.
Paris.

The king has taken into his special protection the proctors and household servants of O. cardinal deacon of St. Mary in Via Lata, who is constantly attendant on the promotion of the king's affairs in the court of Rome, and their goods; granting to the cardinal that the proctors and executors of his nephews may freely sue the graces granted to them by the apostolic see in the realm. By the same.
