Grant to Master Anglus Romanus, canon of Cambray, of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer until the king provide for him in an ecclesiastical benefice to the value of 80 marks of rent; he having been engaged for the expedition of the king’s business in the court of Rome by the archbishop of Tarentaise, Master Rostand sometime king’s clerk, and Master John Clarel, the king’s envoys there, and the king having accepted the engagement.

This letter was made in England and sealed, and afterwards rewritten and sealed at Paris with the new seal by the archbishop of Tarentaise, R. earl of Gloucester, P. de Sabaudia, and J. Mansel, and it was handed to W. Bonqueor to be taken to the said Angius at the court of Rome, and the first letter was condemned.

Ratification of the reception by the king’s command by the said archbishop and Rostand of Master Umbert de Coquinato, papal chaplain, as a king’s clerk, and of their assignment to him of a yearly fee of 20 marks at the Exchequer.

This letter was made in England and sealed for 10 marks, and it was written and sealed with the new seal at Paris and increased by another 10 marks by the archbishop of Tarentaise, R. earl of Gloucester, P. de Sabandia and J. Mansel and handed to W. Bonqueor to be taken to the said Umbert at the court of Rome.

The master and brethren of the Knights of the Temple in the Holy Land have letters patent to their tenants in England to give them a competent aid for the discharge of their debts and the relief of their oppressions by hostile incursions of the Saracens and Tartars.

Acknowledgement that the king is bound to Ellis de Aucerre in 5 marks for a horse lost in the king’s service when the king was last in Gascony, as appears upon testimony by Robert Walerand, with promise to pay at the exchequer of Easter.

Grant to Roger de Lentin, in extension of a grant made to him, by the counsel of the nobles of the council, of 60 marks a year at the Exchequer, during pleasure, that he shall take the said sum until the king provide for him in wards or escheats to that yearly value.

Request to the constable of the castle of Limeuil (Limollo) which Louis, king of the French, has demised to the king to hold according to the terms of the peace between them, to deliver the castle to Bertrand de Kardilak to whom the king has committed the keeping of the lands and castles in those parts.
