Master Robert de Baro has such letters as the said Richard and Master Finacus have severally.

Notification to the pope that the king has appointed Master Anglus canon of Cambray and Master Robert de Baro to prosecute appeals against the restitution of Aymer to the said bishopric of Winchester.

Master Robert de Baro and Master Richard have like letters jointly.

Jan. 17. Acknowledgment of the receipt from brother Peter Boucelli, treasurer of the Temple, Paris, of a loan of 2,800 pounds of Tours in money by tale, and promise to repay the same within a month of Easter next at the Temple, Paris; and if not, to pay his losses occasioned by the default, upon which he or his representative shall be believed.

Whereas Diritta Cambii, citizen and merchant of Florence, of the society of the Spilliati, was bound, in the name of himself and his fellows to pay for the king to Henry, archbishop of Embrun, before Whitsunday last 200 marks in the court of Rome, if the archbishop should be found there, for the expedition of the king’s affairs, and if the archbishop should not be found there, he should pay nothing; the king grants that, if the said merchants can show before him by letters of the archbishop or other lawful means, before Midsummer next that they have paid the archbishop the money, the king shall be bound to repay the same to them; but if they cannot show this by then, the king shall not be bound to repay them and these letters shall be surrendered and be of no value.

Utraque littera per R. earl of Gloucester, W. earl of Albemarle, P. de Sabaudia and J. Mansell.

Protection with clause for Master Richard de Sancto Gorono, for such time as he shall be in the king’s service in the court of Rome.

Jan. 17. Notification that for the repayment of a loan of 2800 pounds of Tours to the king by Peter treasurer of the house of the Temple, Paris, at Easter next at the said Temple, Peter Burdun, Adam Burdun, his brother, Nicholas Flemmeng, Robert Chaucon, Philip Chaucon, Louis, his brother, citizens of Paris, have constituted themselves for the king tenderers and principal debtors to the treasurer, together with R. earl of Gloucester and Hertford, J. Mansell, treasurer of York, Giles de Argenten and Aubrey de Fiscannis.

The king therefore promises and is bound to free them from the said sum towards the said Master within the term and to make good all losses, interest and expenses incurred by them by default of payment of the money.

Appointment of Roger de Turk[eby] to make inquisition for what cause William de Pakenham brother of Thomas de Pakenham, who has withdrawn from the realm, has withdrawn from the same, to wit, whether for fear or for any charge or felony committed against the king’s peace. The sheriff of Suffolk has been commanded to provide a jury.
