1260. Notification that Richard le Chaumberlang, serjeant of H. le Bygod, justiciary of England, on Wednesday after the quinzaine of Easter, delivered in the wardrobe at Wytsand to Peter de Wintonia, clerk of the wardrobe, of 1000L. which the justiciary sent by him to the king out of the king’s treasure of England.

[April 20.] Signification to Giles, bishop of Salisbury, of the royal assent to the election of William de Colerne, monk of Malmesbury to be abbot of that place.

April 24. Pardon, at the instance of Cok Bretun of Dover, king’s mariner, who has served the king well in divers crossings, to John son of William le Clerc of Cumbe for the death of Richard Norman and of any consequent outlawry.

April 27. Royal assent to the election of Philip, prior of Cerne, to be abbot of that place; and mandate to the bishop of Salisbury to do his part in this behalf.

April 24. Mandate to the constable of the castle of Dover and the bailiffs and barons of that port (as above).

Presentation of Stephen de Huntingefeld to the church of Bromden, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester; directed to the archbishop of Canterbury.

1259. Dec. 4. Protection with clause for John de Bruey, king’s yeoman, so long as he be with the king in France.

1260. Notification by R. earl of Gloucester, John Mansell, treasurer of York, Giles de Argentein, and Aubrey de Fiscannis that whereas the king has received a loan of 2,800 pounds of Tours from Peter Boucelli, treasurer of the Temple, Paris, to be repaid within a month after Easter, they have constituted themselves principal debtors for this sum together with Peter Bordun, Adam Bordun, Nicholas Fleming, Robert Chaucon, Philip Chaucon and Louis brother of the said Philip, citizens of Paris, to whom they have also given their letters patent of indemnity, promising that if the king make default in the payment of the money at the said term, they will pay the said sum and any damages and expenses caused by such default.

Jan. 17. Promise by the same to hold the said citizens of Paris harmless if the said sum is not paid at the said term.

Jan. 24. Letters of credence, until Lent, for R. earl of Gloucester and Hertford, whom the king is sending to explain to all his lieges his affairs;