discharge of its debts; provided that the tallage be reasonable and without grievance of the said burgesses and free tenants according to the custom of the realm, as other citizens and burgesses of the king are used to be tallaged.

By K. & C.

Nov. 27. Westminster. Pardon, at the instance of Alard de Seningham, to Baldwin, constable of Ostrewyk, and his heirs of all trespasses and forfeitures which Baldwin, constable of Bulenors, grandfather of the said Baldwin, whose heir he is, or any other of his ancestors, committed against king John; and remission to him of all rancour which the king had conceived against him on account of the same.

Royal assent to the election of Reynold, prior of Brochton (sic), monk of Battle, to be abbot of Battle; and mandate to J. bishop of Chichester to do his part herein.

Nov. 28. Westminster. Presentation of John de Wyham to the prebend which Master Geoffrey de Sancta Agatha, deceased, had in the church of Aucland, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Durham; directed to G. archbishop of York.

Mandate to William de Dene, justiciary of Ireland, and Master William de Bakepuz, escheator in Ireland, to restore the temporalities of the abbey of the Mount of the Apostles Peter and Paul, Lugwith, void by the translation of Donatus, late abbot of that church to be abbot of Clonhors, to John, subprior of the house of St. Mary, Lug-with, elected by the prior and convent to be abbot of the said Mount of the Apostles, to whose election the king has given his assent although the prior and convent, through inexperience did not first ask for the king's licence to elect. They are first to receive the fealty of the said elect as well as letters patent of the prior and convent that this grace shall not be drawn into a precedent.

Grant, at the instance of Alard de Seningham, to Baldwin, constable of Ostrewik, and his heirs that if the manor of Shopelaund, in which he claims right, shall fall into the king's hands, the king will not give or alien it to anyone, but will keep it until he knows, by lawful inquisition, to whom it should descend by hereditary right.

Dec. 1. Westminster. Pardon, at the instance of the king's daughter Margaret, queen of Scotland, to Eleanor daughter of William le Fevre of Waynfllet of her flight and outlawry for the death of Thomas son of Joceus le Char-penter of Beninton.

Dec. 2. Westminster. Pardon to James Isenberd of his flight and outlawry, as it appears by inquisition made by Robert Walerand that, whereas William de Scamelisby and Roger Wasthors, servants of the preceptor and brethren of the house of the Temple, Cumbe, broke a chest of the preceptor and carried away the treasure found therein, and came to the house of the said James in Sindiston to eat and he admitted them for this, and certain of his enemies maliciously accused him of participation in this crime, and the said brethren upon this threatened him grievously, the said James fled through fear of that threatening, and, not because he was guilty.
