Richard de Turr’ has a like letter of the office of the laundry of the said priory.

Henry de la Wade has the like of the office of the chamberlainship of the said priory.

Re-presentation of John de Wytham, king’s chaplain, to the church of Blindon, in the diocese of Salisbury, with a request to G. bishop of Salisbury to defer no longer to admit him.

Protection with clause, for one year from Easter, for M. bishop of Rochester, going to the court of Rome on the affairs of his church.

Grant for life to Walter Faunt, minister of the king’s kitchen, of the office of the scullery of the priory of St. Swithun, Winchester, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester; with all things, liberties, customs and other appurtenances of the office.

Grant to William de Galeweye, king’s sumpter-man, and his heirs of that cottage and those 4½ acres of land in the manor of Geytington, which Simon Bulloe held of the king and which are the king’s escheat, because Simon abjured the realm for felony, as appears by inquisition made by William de Wendling, escheator on this side Trent; to hold as Simon did doing all the customs and services which he used to do.

Pardon, at the instance of Margaret, queen of Scotland, to Alexander son of John son of Ingler[am] de Pykering of his flight and outlawry for the death of Robert del Hallegarth.

Grant for life to Richard de Radinges, minister of the king’s kitchen, of the mastership of the kitchen of the convent of St. Swithun’s, Winchester, which Master Bartholomew the cook sometime had there, and which is in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the see.

Roger le Convers has a like letter of the ministry of the gate of the priory of St. Swithun, Winchester.

Master Thomas, the king’s cook, has a like letter of the ministry of the kitchen of the prior which Master Richard, the king’s cook, sometime had there.

Presentation of Stephen de Huntingfeud to the church of Bromden pertaining to the king by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester; directed to B. archbishop of Canterbury, or his official in Winchester diocese.

Grant to Richard de Ewell, who has long served the king without obtaining from him worthy remuneration for his service, that the king will provide for him and his heirs in 10l. yearly of land out of the first escheats that fall in on this side Trent; and will cause a charter of feoffment thereof to be made.

Confirmation of a lease for twelve years from Sunday after the Translation of Thomas the Martyr 44 Henry III by Roger de Munbray, to Simon de Offeham, king’s chaplain, and his heirs and assigns of the manor of Ryherse, co. Kent.