1261.

March 28. Simple protection without clause, until Michaelmas, for Robert de Trogoz.

The like for John de Bosco, going on pilgrimage to Santiago.

March 31. Protection for life for Marmaduke Darell, on account of his old age and debility, and for his men, lands and possessions.

Protection without clause and without term for the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Katherine without the Tower of London, which is in the queen's hands.

Grant to Thomas le Grete, for a fine, of the hundred of Munceloue for three years from Michaelmas 45 Henry III, so that he answer to all sheriffs of Salop for the issues thereof, as William le Faunt, who had the keeping of the hundred, used to do.

Safe conduct, until three weeks after Easter, for Theodoric, precentor of the House of St. Mary of the Teutons, in Prussia, coming to England to the king of the Romans.

April 7. Protection with clause until Michaelmas for Nicholas de Lenham, going on pilgrimage to Santiago.

April 8. Grant to Stephen de Bues [Buet, in the margin] of the marriage of Joan late the wife of Roger de Huntingfeud, tenant in chief, with any fine she may make with the king for her marriage, as well as with the forfeiture pertaining to him if she marry without the licence of him and the state. The king granted this marriage to him before, but it appears that he has not yet had his letters of the marriage.

April 9. Mandate to Geoffrey de Norhamton, guardian of the priory of Wenloc, to give seisin of the priory and the temporalities thereof to Aymo de Montibus, prior of Bermundeseye, to whom the prior of La Charité has collated that priory, and whose fealty the king has taken.

April 14. Grant to Ellis de Rabayn that he may safely come to the king in England; and mandate to come with all speed.

Mandate to the constable of Dover to let him have safe conduct through his parts.

April 14. Renewal under the present seal of the pardon granted to Thomas Welmer for the death of Adam Coyse. Canc' seq' istam litteram.

Protection with clause, until Michaelmas, for William de Albiniaco going on pilgrimage to Santiago.

April 15. Because Robert de Stutevill is going beyond seas, the king of special grace has admitted Robert Loveday and William del Temple as his attorneys.