Protection with clause, until Michaelmas, for Adam de la Forde going to Scotland on a message of the king.

Assignment of all the issues of the king's change until Michaelmas next for the works of the Tower of London, with mandate to William de Gloucestre, warden of the change, to deliver them to the keepers of the said works.

Power to John, abbot of Peterborough, the treasurer, or any other treasurer for the time being, to pay, out of the first moneys coming to the exchequer of Michaelmas, to Richard de Ewell and Hugh de Turri, buyers of the king's wardrobe, 650l. for cloths, fur and other goods, bought for the use of the king and queen in the last fair of St. Ives, according to a writ of Liberate which the treasurer and chamberlains have; so that the said money be paid before any other.

Grant to the bailiffs and good men of Edward the king's son of Stanford of murage for five years from Whitsunday.

Appointment of Master John de Hemmingford, king's clerk, as the king's proctor in all causes in the court of Rome; with power for him to substitute others when expedient.

This letter was duplicated because of the addition of this name H. archbishop of Embrun.

Appointment of the said John as the king's proctor in the cause of appeal in the court of Rome between the king of the one part and the archbishop of Canterbury and his suffragans of the other touching ordinances, constitutions and statutes lately made by them in the provincial council of London, to the prejudice of the king's right and dignity, and the liberties, law and customs of the realm.

Appointment of the said John as the king's proctor in the said court to sue and defend and to substitute proctors when he shall see expedient.

This letter was duplicated because of the addition of the name of Master Roger Lovel, who has been given as proctor with the said John and with the bishop of Rochester and the archdeacon of Rochester, his brother; so that these four have been appointed proctors jointly in this proxy, and in the first proxy, with the power of substituting taken away; and touching the intermediate proxy namely in the cause of appeal, the said Master John and Roger only have been given, the bishop and archdeacon being excepted as the cause touches them, with the power of substituting other proctors.

Protection with clause, for one year, for William Bonquer, going to France.

Commitment to John Maunsell, treasurer of York, of the Tower of London, during pleasure, with mandate to the mayor, sheriffs and other citizens to be intendant to him as keeper of the Tower.
