June 16. William de Boking and Adam de Kancia, canons of Holy Trinity, London, coming to the king with letters patent of their chapter, have licence to elect a prior.

June 17. Grant to John, firstborn son of the duke of Brittany, of 1200l, for the extent and value of the earldom of Richmond, and 200 marks of the king's gift, so that in the whole he will take at the Exchequer 2000 marks, 1000 at the Ascension and 1000 at All Saints, until the said extent be fully made, as it is contained in a covenant made between the king and him. And if the said extent, when made, is over or under 1200l, a year the difference shall be made good on either side; and this present grant shall not in any way derogate from the said covenant about making an exchange for the said earl or other matters touching the said covenant.

Grant to Reynold son of Peter of 60 marks a year at the Exchequer until the king provide for him more bountifully in wards or escheats. The like to Eustace de Cunflans of 50 marks at Michaelmas.

June 17. Protection without clause, for two years, for Simon son of Simon de Wike.

Protection with clause, for two years, for William de Mohun going to Brittany with Beatrice the king's daughter.

June 18. Appointment of Nicholas de Romese to see that no destruction be made of the woods and lands of the priory of St. Swithuns or dilapidation of the goods thereof; on condition however that the prior have free administration of the manors, possessions and goods assigned to his priory (prioratum) without waste and destruction, for the maintenance of his moderate household there, and that the convent have competently and fairly what it ought to have and has been accustomed to have, and that the residue go to the discharge of the debts of the said house, and the said Nicholas receive his necessaries with three or four mounts (equitaturis) at most; until other provision be made in respect of the state of the priory.

June 22. Pardon to William de Bosco of Baldeterleg for the death of Richard de Barthumley, as it appears by inquisition made by the sheriff of Stafford in full county before the coroners of that county that he killed him in self defence.

Appointment of John de Swineford, taker of the king's wines, to receive all moneys arising from the sale of the wines of Not[ingham] and Northampton, sold by him; and to do therewith some business of the king enjoined on him.

Andrew de Spondon and Nicholas de Donington, canons of the priory of Derlegh, coming to the king with letters of their chapter, have licence to elect.