1261.
Grant to Gocelin de Baillol of 30 marks a year at the Exchequer, until the king provide for him more bountifully in wards or escheats.

Confirmation of the following sale made by Edward the king's son to whom the king granted the wardship of the lands late of William de Fortibus, earl of Albemarle, to wit, to Amicia de Ripariis, countess of Devon, and Isabel de Fortibus, countess of Albemarle, for 3000 marks, the wardship of all the lands of Holdernesse late of the said earl, with all liberties escheats and knights' fees of the honour of Holdernesse, and their incidents (accidentibus) and with the advowsons of the churches of the said honour; and with the marriage of Thomas the eldest son, or of the other heirs, if he die before his majority.

Grant to Richard de Hereford, king's clerk, of 20l. a year at the Exchequer so long as he be resident at the Exchequer and attendant on the king's service.

Grant to Florentinus de Varenna of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer until the king provide for him more bountifully in wards or escheats.

June 29. Tower of London.
Writ of Liberate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer in favour of Richard de Hereford in respect of his fee of 20l. as above.

Grant, at the instance of John, duke of Burgundy, to the merchants of Brabant coming to the realm that for twelve years from 1 August, their goods in the realm shall not be arrested for any debt whereof they are not sureties or principal debtors.

June 29. Tower of London.
Simple protection, until Michaelmas, for William le Corner, citizen of London.

July 2. Tower of London.
Grant to Peter de Sabaudiæ that for seven years after his death, his executors shall have, for the execution of his will, the issues and profits of the honour and earldom of Richmond, which the king before this gave to him in fee and inheritance. Grant also that if, at the time of his death, his heirs shall be without the realm, the king will receive without difficulty their homage and fealty for the said earldom and honour when they come to him, provided that they find sufficient security to such executors that the executors shall have power to administer the issues and profits of the said honour and earldom for the said seven years, without impediment therein by the heirs.

Because the king has learned by letters of H. bishop of London, that he has confirmed the election of Gilbert, canon of Holy Trinity, London, to be prior of that house, and Gilbert has made fine with him by 12 marks which he paid at once in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, clerk, keeper of the said wardrobe, for all things which pertain to the king on account of the voidance, the king has taken his fealty and commands Henry de Mercinton, guardian of that priory, to give him seisin of the priory and all things.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.