1261.

Membrane 6—cont.

The like, until Michaelmas, for Master Ralph, buyer of Edward the king's son, gone with the same daughter beyond seas.

July 26.

Tower of London.

Mandate to William de Birlay, guardian of the abbey of Derlegh, to restore the temporalities thereof to William de Wymundeham, canon of that house, whose election as abbot has been confirmed by R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants.

Protection with clause, until Christmas, for Peter de Rivallis, gone beyond seas to conduct Beatrice his (sic) daughter to Brittany.

July 29.

Tower of London.

Mandate to the prior and convent of Certeseye, guardians of the abbey, to restore the abbey with the temporalities thereof to John de Medmeham, monk of that house, whose election as abbot has been confirmed by B. archbishop of Canterbury.

Writ de intendendo directed to the tenants.

Whereas William de Swinburn, clerk of A. king of Scotland, came to the king to receive 1000L which the king promised to pay to him at last Boston Fair, in part payment of what the king owes to the said Alexander; and the king paid the said William 1000 marks as part of the said 1000L; and the said clerk has committed Alexander's receipt for 1000L into the hands of Queen Eleanor, as an indifferent person, until Alexander sends a receipt for 1000 marks; the king promises, that upon receiving the receipt for 1000 marks, he will restore the said receipt for 1000L.

Afterwards this letter was surrendered and cancelled, because the king of Scotland sent a receipt for 1000 marks, and received by the hands of the queen his receipt for 1000L, and the receipt for 1000 marks was handed to H. de Gaunt, keeper of the wardrobe, by the hands of W. de Merton.

To the people of Kent. The king asks them to remember the oath of fealty which they lately took, and not to give faith to the suggestions or words of anyone contrary to the said fealty, or to any assertions whereby the king's mind may be disturbed or moved, but to continue in their pristine fidelity so that in their business they may have safe recourse to the king.

Renewal of the presentation of Nicholas de Villa, king's clerk, to the church of Cestreton, void by the death of Adam de Aston; directed to R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.

Aug. 4.

Windsor.

Whereas Edward the king's son committed to the king his manors of Staunford and Graham, the rape of Hastings and all his other lands in the county of Sussex, until the king have received in sterling 4000 pounds of Tours which the king of France lent to the said Edward in his great necessity, and as to which the king has discharged him to the king of France; the king has committed the premises to Thomas de Kinros, king's clerk, during pleasure, for the said time, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Writ de intendendo for him directed to the bailiffs of the said Edward in the premises.