
Notification to the said Louis that the king cannot come on the said quinzaine of St. Martin and countermanding that day until the next parliament or until a day which Louis shall appoint.

Notification to him of the appointment of the said Master Thomas and Nicholas to countermand the said day.

Nov. 8.
Tower of London.

Safe conduct, until Sunday after the feast St. Leonard and the whole of that day for the barons coming to Kingston on that day to make peace with the king, on condition that they come without arms.

Nov. 6.
Tower of London.

Protection with clause until Michaelmas for Walter de Dunheved, going to Ireland on the affairs of Edward the king's son.

Nov. 6.
Tower of London.

Grant to Guy de Gardeneréis of 20 marks a year at the Exchequer for his maintenance in the king's service until the king provide for him more bountifully in wards or escheats.

Nov. 6.
Tower of London.

Presentation of John Griffyn, chaplain, to the church of All Saints, [Dorchester] void by the resignation of Ralph de Croynden, directed to Giles, bishop of Salisbury.

Nov. 8.
Tower of London.

Grant to the prior and convent of Hyde, for a fine, of the keeping of their abbey in its next voidance by the cession or death of Roger their abbot, and shall have all the issues, as well in tallages of their men as in lands and other things, so that no bailiff of the king intermeddle therein; saving to the king advowsons of churches and wards and escheats of knights' fees falling in.

Nov. 6.
Tower of London.

\textit{Inspeximus} of letters of Margaret, queen of France, dated at St. Germain-on-Laye, Tuesday after Whitsunday, stating that William le Latymer and Master Henry de Gandavo, in the presence of Peter Buscel (Boscelli), treasurer of the Temple, Paris, brother Nicholas his fellow, Robert de Giroliis knight, Peter de Lauduno, chamberlain of the said Margaret, and William de Aureliaco, her clerk, showed to her certain jewels of the king [recited] and the said Peter receiving them in two chests under her counter-seal, the said Margaret caused them to be deposited at the Temple, Paris, and the said William Latimer and Henry, the king's envoys, are bearing the keys of the said chests. [\textit{Federæ].]

\textit{Membrane 20. (Schedule).}

The said letters of Queen Margaret.

Nov. 8.
Tower of London.

Grant to John Luvel and his heirs that they may hunt with their own dogs the hare, the fox, the badger and the cat, except in fence month, in all forests in the counties of Wilts, Oxford, Northampton, Buckingham and Huntingdon.

Nov. 12.
Tower of London.

Grant to Richard, king of the Romans, the king's brother, that if he die before Edmund his son come of age, he may give to whom he will the wardship of the lands belonging to the said Edmund by reason of the marriage of his mother, and likewise the wardship of the lands which he will share with his brother, and of all other lands