A like letter issued without this addition, 'quantum ad nos pertinet' [These words are not in the first quittance.] ¹

The like quantum ad nos pertinet to Ellis de Claro Monte and his fellows of the diocese of Perigueux for taking and plundering certain knights of the household of the said Peter as above.

The like to the following:

Ellis de Sendrell'.
Fulk de Clarenc'.

The like, without the addition.

Licence for life for Richard Mansell to hunt with his own dogs the hare, the fox, the badger and the cat, except in the fence month, throughout the king's forests of the county of York.

Dec. 8. Assignment to Gerard de Rodes, as above, with the addition of the words on condition that the said meadow which has now perished by the inundation of the said waters, remain to the king and his heirs for ever.

Dec. 11. Promise to Richard de Norwico, John Nade, William de Dunwico, Alexander de Reffham and Hugh le Tondor, to whom the king demised for 60l. the chattels of Gilbert le Waider in Norwich, which came to the king's hands by reason of his felony in drowning himself, that the king will keep them harmless against all who may claim any right therein. And if any one on behalf of those of Norwich or another claims them, the king will see that justice is done to them.

Grant to William de Wilton of 100l. a year at the Exchequer for his maintenance in the office of justice.

MEMBRANE 18.

Grant to Walter de Merton, king's clerk and chancellor, that he shall have 50 tuns of wine which he is bringing to England this year quit of all manner of the king's prise.

Dec. 10. Westminster. Acknowledgment of the receipt from Louis king of the French, of 10,416 pounds 13 shillings and 4 pence of Tours in part payment of the cost of knights according to the form of the peace; and promise to spend a like amount on the service of God or the church or to the profit of the realm of England. [Fœderæ.]

Dec. 12. Westminster. Notification that whereas Louis, king of the French, is bound by the late peace to give the king the value of the land of the Agenais, the king by good counsel has agreed to accept 3720 pounds 8 shillings and 6 pence of Tours yearly for the same, payable at the Temple, Paris. [Fœderæ.]

Dec. 9. Westminster. Pardon to Thomas Alurech and Margery his wife and William his brother of their outlawry for the mayhem whereof they were appealed by Philip Godefrey, as it was through fraud and deception practised upon them that they absented themselves from the fourth county because of which they were outlawed.

Dec. 7. London. Protection until Whitsunday for the barons who have made peace with the king.
