Grant to James de Aldithele—to whom the king heretofore granted the wardship of the lands of Isabel Basset, tenant in chief, in England Wales and Ireland, saving the marriages of the heirs and the advowsons of churches, and on condition that his yearly fee of 60 marks at the Exchequer should cease during this wardship,—of the advowson of the church of Mildehale, notwithstanding the above reservation.

MEMBRANE 15.

Feb. 18. Whereas by the assent and provision of the brethren of the hospital of St. Giles without London and by mandate of the king, wardens of the said hospital are accustomed to be appointed by the citizens of London, to hold their office for life unless they commit some trespass or forfeiture, for which they ought to be removed, and William son of Richard, citizen of London, was so appointed some time since; the king grants that the said William shall, in conjunction with Adam de Basinges, his fellow citizen, to whom the king with the assent of the said brethren previously committed the keeping, hold the said keeping for his life, with full and free administration of all goods belonging to that keeping, under the same liberties, free customs and conditions as other keepers have had in times past.

Feb. 8. Presentation of Master Thomas de la Leye to the church of Westminster. Hendon in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the lands and heirs of Thomas Pykot; directed to H. bishop of London.

Feb. 19. Grant to Cresseus son of Master Mosseus and Hagin his brother, Cok son of Aaron and Manasser his brother, Jews, for a fine which they have paid in the Wardrobe, that for five years the king will not cause any extent to be made, or any prorogation of terms, quittance, or gift of the debts due to them.
The like to the following, for five years:—
Elias son of Mosseus.
Mosseus de Clar' and Vives his son.
Aaron de la Rye.
Samuel de Shorham and Aaron son of Vives.
Cresseus son of Genta, Leo son of Preciosa and Gamaliel de Oxonia.
Belia late the wife of Peitevin (Pictavini) de Bedeford.
Joseus, nephew of Aaron, and Deutayt his son.

Feb. 18. Presentation of Nicholas de Villa to the church of Bodeham, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of William de Bodeham being in his hands; directed to S. bishop of Norwich.

Feb. 20. Release to James de Alditheleg, in recompence of his wages for the time that he was in the king's service, of 40l. which the king granted to him as a loan out of the wardrobe, by the hands of Henry de Gaunt, keeper of the wardrobe, so that he can demand nothing further from the king on account of his said wages.

Feb. 21. Grant to John de Balliolo, in pursuance of the king's promise to provide for one of his sons or daughters in a marriage of an heir whose inheritance is of the value of from 500l. to 1000l. a year, of the marriage of Robert heir of Thomas Gresle, first-born son of Robert son of the said Thomas, lately deceased; and in case of his dying
