ratified for this turn. Saving however the right of anyone after the cession or decease of the said clerks.

March 10. Whereas the king granted to Ingram de Percy and Peter de Chauvent the marriage of Joan and Cecily, daughters and the two heirs of William de Fortibus, on condition that if they were unwilling to take them as wives, Maud de Kyma, their mother, should be before all others if she wished to buy their marriages; the king grants to the said Maud that this condition shall be fully observed to her.

March 12. Grant to William de Valencia the king’s brother that there shall be paid to him at the Exchequer of Michaelmas next 250 marks which Peter de Brus paid into the wardrobe by order of the king to Aubrey de Fiscampis and Peter de Wintonia, clerks of the wardrobe, of the debts which Peter owed to the king’s said brother to wit, 100l. on Saturday after St. John before the Latin Gate, 44 Henry III, and 100 marks on Sunday before St. Luke the Evangelist in that year.

And be it known that the letters patent which the said Peter had of the payment of the said money, were handed to Robert le Blund, clerk, to take to W. de Valencia.

Vacated because the letters were surrendered and cancelled.

March 15. Appointment of Robert de Nevill, Hugh de Bolebek, Ralph son of Randolf and William de Notingham to go on eyre for pleas of the forest in the counties of Nottingham, York, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Lancaster.

March 15. Grant to Belia late the wife of Peitevin de Bedford that Isaac de Bedford and Bonefaunt his brother, Jews, and their wives and children, shall be removed from the town of Bedford, and dwell where they used to dwell before, so that they do not return, for five years from Mid Lent without the king’s special licence; as it is testified before the king that they who have not hitherto dwelt in the said town, are carrying away her debts and chattels and do her other damage.

Mandate to the sheriff of Bedford to cause them to be removed.

Writ of aid directed to the sheriffs of the counties of Oxford, Northampton and Nottingham in favour of John de Swineford, king’s clerk, appointed to sell the king’s wines in his cellars of Oxford, Wodestok, Norhampton, Geitington, Clyve and Notingham, and to lay out the issues in the purchase of other wines in the next fair of Boston; and they are to cause all vintners of their bailiwicks to come before him to bring the said wines, and prohibit any sale of wines being made until the king’s wines are bought.

The like to the sheriffs of Southampton and Wilts, touching the sale of wines in the cellars of Winchester, Clarendon and Marleberg, the issues to be laid out in the purchase of other wines at Southampton at the time of the next vintage.

March 14. Appointment of the said John to sell the king’s wines in all these places and purchase other wines.

March 15. Grant to Benedict de Lincolnia, Jew, for a fine paid in the wardrobe, that the king will not cause any extent, prorogation of terms