Presentation of Master John de Perton to the church of St. Mary, Grimmisby, void by the resignation of H. bishop of London; directed to the bishop of Lincoln or his official.

Grant to the consuls and university of the royal castle of the diocese of Périgueux on the Dordogne of such customs, liberties and immunities as Raymond, sometime count of Toulouse, or Alfonse, now count of Toulouse and Poitiers, the king's kinsman, gave to the consuls and commonalty or inhabitants of any of the bastides which he caused to be made, so that it be at their option to choose any of these they will; and full power to John de la Lynde to grant the same to them.

Commission to the bishop of Bazas, Amanieu de la Breto, Peter de Burdegala and John de la Lynde, seneschal of the Limousin, Périgord and Quercy, in amplification of their former commission to hear and determine the question (questionem) in which Reynold de Pontibus and Margaret his wife have moved against the king in the court of France, wherein they sue that they be admitted to the king's homage and fealty for the castle of Gensac, and for which the king has fixed for them a day at Bordeaux a month after Easter upon which to show them justice according to the courts and customs of the court of Gascony; and lest, through any default of court, they or any others claiming any right in the said castle or moving any question, should have recourse to the king; to hear and determine all such questions, and to appoint, if need be, a court of the barons of Gascony; and to continue the proceedings, if necessary, for further days and in other places.

Grant to P. bishop of Hereford, and his successors, of this liberty that during their fair of Hereford no business be done or trade exercised within 5 leagues of the said fair, saving other public fairs and markets granted heretofore by the king and his predecessors.

Whereas the king committed to Hugh Cole, for a fine of ½ mark of gold the hundred of Webetre for seven years from Michaelmas, 40 Henry III, rendering 20s. a year to the sheriff of Hereford as other bailiffs of that hundred have been accustomed to do; and whereas the said Hugh demised the said bailiwick to William Culverd, who paid the fine, and the said William was ejected from the said bailiwick two years ago by Henry de Penebrig; the king grants to the said William the said office for three years, and commands the free men and others of the hundred to be intendant to him.

Mandate to the sheriff of Hereford to deliver the keeping of the said hundred to him.
