1262.

Membrane 9—cont.

Protection without clause for Philip Rabotel, clerk of William de Valencia, the king's brother, so long as he shall be in his service.

June 27. Protection with clause, until Whitsunday, for John de Verdun, Westminster, staying in Ireland; pleas summoned before the justices in eyre of the present, this year excepted.

Membrane 8.

June 28. Grant to William de Valencia that the king will pay to him at the exchequer of next Michaelmas, 300 marks which Walter de Lindeseye paid in the wardrobe to Aubrey de Fiscampo and Peter de Wintonia, clerks of the wardrobe, and which the said Walter owed to the said William, to wit, 200 marks on Sunday after St. John before the Latin Gate, 44 Henry III, by the hands of Robert de Sikinghale, treasurer of the New Temple, London, of the forty-second and forty-third years, and 100 marks on the morrow of All Souls, 45 Henry III, of the forty-fourth year.

June 28. Mandate to Richard de Tillebiry, constable of the Tower of Westminster, London, to permit Master Henry de Gandavo, keeper of the wardrobe, to take from the king's treasure there which is under the locks and seal of the said Master Henry, 600L, to pay for the jewels which he put in pledge for the king by order of the king, for 600L, by view of J. abbot of Peterborough, the treasurer, for the purchase of cloths and other necessaries of the wardrobe made in the fair of St. Ives 46 Henry III, from Walter Pedargent, merchant of Douai, and his fellows, John Bardun, merchant of Ipre, and his fellows, Luke de Luka, and his fellows, by the hands of Richard de Ewell and Hugh de Turri buyers of the wardrobe.

June 30. Protection with clause, except the four pleas, for John Mansell, Westminster, treasurer of York, going beyond seas with the king. So long as he shall be with the king.

Protection, with clause, for him until his return.

June 29. Presentation of Master John de Perton to the church of St. Mary Grimmisby, void by the resignation of H. bishop of London; directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

July 1. Protection, with clause volumus, except the four pleas, for William Westminster, de Sinagun, knight of the queen, going beyond seas with the queen, so long as he be with her there.

The like for Matthias Bezill, so long as he shall be in those parts with the king.

Whereas some time since the king commanded the merchants of Florence to make amends to Peter de Sabaudia within the quinzaine of Easter last as they wished to remain in his realm after that term, and as they did not make amends, he commanded the sheriffs of London, the bailiffs of Stanford and the warden of the instant fair of Boston to cause arrest to be made of the goods of the said merchants, in the said towns and fair, except the goods of Maynetus Spyne, Detantus Willelmi and their fellows, until further order; he gives power to Wichard de Charrun, steward of the said Peter, the