1262.

Membrane 7—cont.

said Willelma in Blaunche Roynges are still in the keeping of the said Isabel, as the said Isabel is going beyond seas with the queen, the king has taken into his protection the men, lands, things, rents and possessions which are in the keeping of the said Isabel by reason of the execution of the said will so long as Isabel be beyond seas with the queen: and it is with the clause.

July 11.  Grant to Hugh le Fraunceys that the king will provide for him out of the first wards or escheats falling in to the value of 10l. a year.

Canterbury.

Ralph de Crek, [——] de Geyste, canons of Crek, bringing news of the death of William their abbot, have licence to elect.

July 12.  Release to Simon Passelewe of the king's indignation and rancour against him, for certain trespasses, as John Maunsell, treasurer of York, and Hugh le Bigod, have mainperned before the king that he will make amends for the said trespasses, if he can be reasonably convicted before them of the same.

Dover.

Feb. 22.  Grant to Geoffrey de Childewyk, in recompense of his expenses in the king's service in Gascony and elsewhere, and for divers debts wherein the king is bound to him, that the king will acquit him against Cresseus son of Master Mosseus, Jew of London of the whole debt and fee wherein the king is bound to the said Cresseus, and will save him harmless thereof.

Windsor.

July 10.  Whereas the king is bound to William de Valencia in 1550 marks, which the king lately received of his treasure and debts while the said William was beyond seas, to wit, 900 marks which he had in deposit in the abbey of Wantham, 100 marks of the farm of Corbrig which the king had granted to him, 250 marks which Peter de Brus paid in the wardrobe by order of the king to Aubrey de Fisampo and Peter de Wintonia, clerks of the wardrobe, for debts due by Peter to the said William, (to wit, 100l. on Saturday after the feast of St. John before the Latin Gate, 44 Henry III, and 100 marks on Sunday before the feast of St. Luke the Evangelist in that year); 300 marks which Walter de Lindeseye paid in the wardrobe to the said Aubrey and Peter (to wit, 200 marks on Sunday after the feast of St. John before the Latin Gate, 44 Henry III and 100 marks on the morrow of All Souls, 45 Henry III) for debts which the said Walter owed to him; the king has assigned to him his executors or assigns all the issues of the present eyre of the justices in the county of Essex and of the next eyre in the county of Hertford, to the above amount and if the issues do not suffice, then the deficiency shall be received from the issues of the next eyre of any other county; on condition that the said issues be levied and carried to the Exchequer by the sheriffs of the said counties and kept there under their seals and the seal of the treasurer of the Exchequer, until they be delivered to the said William or his executors or assigns, which the king wishes to be done as opportunity arises. And the king will take none of the said issues to his use or assign any part thereof to anyone until the said William be fully paid.

Memorandum that this letter was surrendered in the ninth year of King Edward, the tenth incipiente, and cancelled, and it is on the file of the ninth year.