Jan. 12. To L. son of Griffin. The king is sending to him Philip le Bret, and the preceptor of the house of the Knights Templars of Garewy, and the master of the house of Donemor as his envoys to explain his affairs, and he is to give credence to them.

Jan. 11. To the dean and chapter of Salisbury. The king has changed his residence to Westminster, Walter de Merton, the chancellor, the prebend which he had in the church of Salisbury, and granted him the prebend of Bere, which Master Ralph de Eboraco, deceased, had in that church, and in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Salisbury; and therefore he commands them to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter accordingly.

A like letter issued without the addition of the name of Bere.

Notification to the said dean and chapter that on the resignation by the king's clerk, Walter de Merton, the chancellor, of the prebend which he had in the church of Salisbury, the king has granted him the prebend which the said Master Ralph had in the same church; and mandate &c.

A like letter issued without any mention made of resignation or exchange.

Membrane 18.

Jan. 10. Grant for life to William Portejoie, serjeant of the rolls of the Chancery, in satisfaction of the late grant to him of 4½d. a day out of the first money of the king's appointed alms that should fall in, of 4½d. a day, which Philip de Sechevill, deceased, used to receive of such alms, to wit, 2d. by the hands of the sheriffs of London, 1d. by the hands of the bailiffs of Havering and 1½d. at the Exchequer.

Grant to Master John Mansel the younger of the prebend of Yettesbiry, void by the exchange which the king made to Walter de Merton, the chancellor, and in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Salisbury; with mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

Protection with clause for Ingram de Fenes, going beyond seas on the king's affairs; so long as he is so engaged.

Jan. 2. The like, until the feast of St. John next, for Hugh de Nevill, going on pilgrimage to St. Theobalds.

Jan. 16. Ralph de Selveston and Ralph de Sandeston, monks of Luffeld, coming to the king with letters patent of their chapter announcing the death of William their prior, have licence to elect.

Grant to William Charles, dwelling with one other in the king's household (mannagio) of 20l. a year at the Exchequer, until the king shall provide for him more bountifully in wards or escheats.

Jan. 15. Mandate to H. prior of St. Radegund's, Master J. de Chishull and H. de Wengham, archdeacon of London and Middlesex, J. de Wengham, precentor of St. Paul's, London, H. de Stokes, and their co-executors of the will of H. de Wengham, sometime bishop of London, to acquit the king to Guy de Lezignan, William de Valencia, the king's brothers, Gerard la Grue, and their co-executors of the will of A.