Protection without clause, for two years, for William de Chalfeleg and Sarra his wife.

The like, until Midsummer, for John de Langford, gone with W. [bishop] elect of Salisbury.

Confirmation of a lease for four years made by John de Burgo to John Mansell, treasurer of York, of the manor of Porteslade, and of a further like lease for five years following.

March 8. Bond to Nicholas de Lyuns, Walter Pedargent and their fellows, merchants of Douai, in 221L 18s. for cloths bought of them to the king’s use by Richard de Ewell and Hugh de Turri buyers of the wardrobe, in Winchester fair in the forty-sixth year, and in St. Edmund’s fair in the forty-seventh year; which money the king will pay to them at the next Boston fair.

The like to John Burdun and John de Lo and their fellows, merchants of Ypres, in 159L 12s. 4d. for cloths bought of them by said buyers at St. Ives’ fair in the forty-fifth year, and at St. Edmund’s fair in the forty-sixth year; which money the king will pay to them at the next Boston fair.

March 8. Simple protection for one year for Master William le Breton, clerk of John Mansell, treasurer of York, whom the said John is sending to divers parts of England and the March of Wales on the affairs of Master John Mansell his kinsman.

March 8. Whereas the king committed during pleasure to Roger de la Lye, king’s clerk, and William son of Richard, citizen of London, the changes of London and Canterbury; he has granted to the said Roger that at the feast of St. Vincent next he be absolved from the said office unless he wishes to stay in it longer.

March 8. The prior and convent of Peterborough, sending news of the death of J. their abbot, by Stephen the almoner and Richard the chamberlain, their fellow-monks, bearing letters patent of the chapter, have licence to elect.

March 16. Grant to Peter de Aqua Blanca, nephew of P. bishop of Hereford, of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer, in the name of a fee until the king provide for him more bountifully.

March 15. Appointment of Stephen de Assewell and Geoffrey de Clayvill to exercise the office of the coroner in his absence from the county, for this time in the county of Hertford, as the coroner is not present in the county, touching William Trap and Cecily his wife and Katharine daughter of William, who are said to have been killed at Wathamsted, co. Hertford, so that they present in full county what they find by their inquisitions before the coroners of the said county when these shall have been substituted in full county.

March 15. Grant to Ingram de Fenes, for his long service, of the wardship of land to the value of 200 marks a year out of the lands late of William de Bello Campo of Bedford, lately deceased, tenant in chief,