April 19. Westminster. Bond to William de la Hole in 80 marks to be paid out of the first issues of the mine lately found in the county of Devon for the whole land, meadow and wood which he has in la Hole and which he has granted to the king for ever, on condition that he shall have all the issues of the said land and meadow as well in corn and hay and other things until he be satisfied of the said 80 marks, saving to the king the vesture of the said wood, but so that the king shall not cause any of the vesture of the said wood to be taken until the said money is paid to him.

April 15. Westminster. Pardon to Hugh de Haneberg for cutting off the hand of Richard son of Walter le Sauvage, as it appears by inquisition made by Robert Walerand that he fled to church for this and as well for fear of gaol as of his enemies falsely acknowledged that he had killed a certain John de Den in the forest of Dene, for which reason he abjured the realm.

April 8. Westminster. Licence for life for Stephen son of Peter to hunt with his own dogs the hare, the fox, the badger and the cat in the forest of Pikeryng, co. York.

April 1. London. Grant for life to Raymond, vicomte of Turenne, of 195 pounds of Tours a year at the Purification by the hands of the seneschal of the Limousin, Périgord and Quercy from the ‘commune’ of Périgord (de commune Petragor”) or other issues of the king’s lands in those parts, if the said ‘commune’ fail for any reason; on condition that he may be able by justice to recall knights’ fees alienated in mortmain or in the hand of burgesses and that in this he be aided by the seneschal if he require him. Likewise, if anyone without the king’s power attack him with arms, he may defend himself and his lands with arms, and if necessary attack, provided that no prejudice arise hereby to the king or his seneschal, to prevent their doing justice to those who complain of him. Further, if the king by pretext of the peace with the king of France, can sue anything which the king of France could sue as due for the keeping of castles or expenses for them or by reason of offence committed by him of the time that the vicomte held his land of the king of France, the king will not sue it of the vicomte.

Grant to Guy de Turenna, clerk, brother of Raymond vicomte of Turenne, of 150 pounds of Tours payable at the Purification, during pleasure, from the ‘commune’ of Périgord, or the other issues of the king’s lands in the dioceses of Limoges, Périgueux and Cahors by the hands of the seneschal of those parts if the said ‘commune’ should fail.

Grant for life to Peter Aurioli, donzel, of 15 pounds of Tours a year from the same.

The like to Poncius de Gordonio of 100 pounds of Tours a year from the same.

April 23. Westminster. Grant to Guy de Turenna that his above grant of 150 pounds of Tours a year shall not be revoked until he be provided for in a competent benefice.
