Commitment, as above, to Drew de Barentyn of the castle of St. Briavel’s.
Mandate to Robert Waleraund to deliver it to him.

Commitment, as above, to Ralph de Gorges of the castle of Schyreburn.
Mandate to Philip Basset to deliver it to him.

Commitment, during pleasure, to John de Grey of the castle and county of Hereford, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.
Mandate to Richard de Baggingden to deliver the castle and county to him.

Mandate to the barons of the port of Dover, requesting them when Edward the king’s firstborn son and heir comes to them to receive their fealty as he has lately received it by mandate of the king from the rest of the barons and magnates, to do their fealty to him, saving their fealty to the king so long as he lives, so that, if he survive the king, they shall have him for their lord and king, and give him aid to obtain his coronation and the crown of the realm.
The like to each of the ports.

Confirmation of a grant by Edward the king’s son, to whom the king granted the wardship of the lands and heirs of Robert de Stafford with the marriage of the heirs, to Geoffrey de Langeleye of the said wardship and marriage, except 20l., yearly of land which the said Edward had granted out of the said wardship to Ralph Basset in the manor of Maddeleg, and except knights’ fees, and advowsons of churches belonging thereto.

Whereas Guy de Rocheford has surrendered into the king’s hands the farm of the town of Kingeston which the king granted to him yearly by the hands of his bailiffs of that town for his maintenance for life or until the king should provide for him otherwise; the king has granted to him, because for the king he has been disinherited in Poitou, the farm of the town of Aundovere with the blanch money (cum blanco), to be received at the terms at which the men of that town are accustomed to pay their farm at the Exchequer, by their own hands, saving to the king tallages, escheats and all other things belonging to the king in the said town. And be it known that the said Guy surrendered to the king all the instruments whereby the king was bound to him in the assignment of lands or fees, and acquitted the king wholly thereof, so that if any bond be found hereafter, it is to be void.

Membrane 7.

Confirmation of a lease for seven years from Michaelmas 46 Henry III by Hugh de Cressy to Geoffrey de Chesewyk of his manor of Heriotesham, except the park and the advowsons of the churches of Heriotesham and Stapilhurst.
