Membrane 7—cont.

junction with P. bishop of Périgueux, and William, prior of le Mas, who were first appointed to settle the said affair, and Raymond, vicomte of Turenne, and Master Peter de Podio, who were afterwards appointed if the said prior would not or could not attend.

Safe conduct until Sunday after the feast of SS. Peter and Paul for the king’s brother in law Simon, earl of Leicester, and Eleanor the king’s sister his wife, their children, households and goods, coming to the king, staying and returning; provided that they come without arms and stay for that time.

Promise to James de Aldithele, to whom the king committed the castles of Shrewsbury and Bruges during pleasure, which by reason of the disturbance of the realm, he has to munition, that the king will allow him his reasonable costs in so doing on condition that he answer for the same as well as for other expenses made whereof he had like letters before at the Exchequer.

The like to the following touching the munition of the following castles:
- Philip Basset, the castle of Oxford.
- The same, the castle of Devizes.
- Adam de Gesomuth, the castle of Newcastle upon Tyne (super Llman).
- Hamo Lestrange, the castle of Bridgnorth.
- The same, the castle of Shrewsbury.

June 17.

The like, omitting the clause as well as for other expenses, for the following:
- Philip Basset, the castle of Devizes.
- Robert Walerand, the castles of Dover, Merleberg, and Lutegareshale.
- Ralph Russell, the castle of Old Sarum.

Notification that Peter de Chavent and Roger le Convers, keepers of the king’s arms, have delivered by his order the following arms to the following persons of the king’s gift:
- Herman de Budberg, a hauberk (loricam) with steel chausses (calig*).
- Roger le Convers, the like.
- John Maunsell, treasurer of York, a steel helmet (capell’) with visor.
- Peter de Chauvent, a hauberk with steel chausses; a helmet (galeam) and coat (coopertur’).
- Geoffrey de Bulumund, a hauberk with steel chausses, and a coat.
- Imbert Pugeis, the like.
- Richard le Norreys, a coat.
- Walter de Burgo, a hauberk with steel chausses.
- William de Sancta Ermina, the like, with a coat.
- Master Henry de Gandavo, the like, with a coat.
- William Belet, the like, with a coat.
- Nicholas de Saneto Mauro, the like.
- Bernard Johannis, a habergeon (haubergellum) and a gorget (gorgeram).

June 23.

Protection without clause, for five years, for the master and St. Paul’s brethren of the hospital of St. Mary Magdalene, Dertford.