Membrane 6—cont.

This letter was surrendered in the ninth year of King Edward, beginning of the tenth, and cancelled and it is on the file of the ninth year.

Commitment to H. bishop of London, of the castle of Dover in a form agreed upon between the king by R. bishop of Lincoln and the other proctors of the king appointed to make peace with the barons, of the one part, and of the said barons of the other part; with mandate the tenants of the castellany of Dover to be intendant to him.

Mandate to Edmund the king’s son and Robert de Glastonia to cause the said castle to be delivered to him.

To Ingram de Fednes. Whereas Henry, first born son of the king of the Romans lately landed at Witsaund and was arrested there and is detained in prison with the said Ingram, which, although he might think it to be to the king’s profit, will be a cause of inestimable peril to the king unless the said Henry is quickly released, especially as at the present time it behoves the king to enter into and have peace with the barons if the king wishes to avoid loss to his honour and the realm, which cannot be made without the speedy release of the said Henry; the king commands the said Ingram requesting him, by his fealty and affection which he owes to the king, to cause the said Henry to be released from prison so that he may return to the king without obstacle. The king undertakes to save the said Ingram harmless touching the said caption and release and that Edward the king’s son will ratify the said release.

Grant to Peter de Nevill, to whom the king granted a fee of 10l. and who is bound to the king in certain debts at the Exchequer which the king caused to be attermined at the rate of 10 marks a year; that the said 10 marks be allowed to him in his said fee so long as he receives it, and that he receive the remaining 5 marks.

Commitment to Peter de Monte Forti of the manor of John Maunsell of Segrewyk with the fortalice (forcelletto) and its appurtenances, until the king order the same to be restored to the said John. [There is also an interlineation in these words:—afterwards thus: until the said John return and the king restore the same to him.]

Mandate to Thomas de Appelton and Eustace Heyron to deliver the same to him.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Whereas the king lately gave power to Richard, bishop of Lincoln, H. bishop of London, R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, W. bishop of Exeter; brother John de Derlington and William de Wilton to treat of peace between the king and his barons touching the questions and contentions about the constitutions and statutes made at Oxford, and they by authority of the king granted to the said barons as follows: that the ordinances and statutes made at Oxford and the oaths of the king and the magnates and all other persons of the realm of England which had been sworn, should be kept inviolably; that the state of the provisions in the original form being reformed as far as may be (et statu providenciarum in pristina seisina prout poterit reformato) afterwards, if anything in them should,
