of the Limousin, Périgord and Quercy if this be so, to make public protestation in the king's name against the receiving of the said homage for the king's right, so that prejudice may not arise hereafter to the king or the said consuls or commonalty.

To all the knights staying in the munition of the castle of Windsors. As the king is unwilling that they stay longer in the said castle or detain it, he commands them, upon sight of these letters, to go out of the castle, knowing that if they prolong their stay there, the king will repute them as his enemies and as forceful (violentes) detainers of the said castle against the king and his will.

In like manner it is commanded to Roger de Mortayn and Ebulo de Montibus and his other men in the castle of Windsors.

On Thursday before the feast of St. Margaret the Virgin, in the presence of S. de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester and the other magnates of the realm of England, Master Nicholas, archdeacon of Ely, received the keeping of the king's seal, and he forthwith sealed with it.

July 18. Commitment, by the counsel of the magnates, to William Bardolf Westminster, of the castle of Notingham, to keep in the form provided by the king and the said magnates.

Mandate to John de Balliolo to deliver it to him.

The like to the following of the following castles, with like mandates of livery;—

Henry de Tracy, Exeter.
John de Muscogros to deliver it.
Peter de Monteforti, Corf and Schireburn.
Nicholas de Molis to deliver Corf.
Philip Basset to deliver Schireburn.
John de Eyvill, York.
Robert de Nevill to deliver it.
John de Haia, Winchester castle and the keeping of the Jews of Winchester.
Richard [de Grey] Dover castle, the chamberlainship of Sandwich, and the Cinque Ports.
H. bishop of London to deliver them; and he is to deliver to him the corn, wines, arms, and other furniture of the said castle, whereof he shall cause a chirograph to be made between them.

Mandate to the tenants of the castellany of Dover, the barons and bailiffs of Sandwich, and all persons of the Cinque Ports to be in tending to him as constable of Dover, chamberlain of Sandwich and warden of the Cinque ports.

Ralph Basset of Sapecot, Northampton castle.
Alan la Zuche to deliver it.

Whereas in divers counties of the realm contentions have been moved by occasion of the provisions and statutes made at Oxford not being observed, which the king wills to be fully observed and kept, and he has provided John de Sancto Valerico to be keeper of the peace in the county of Southampton; he commands him to cause full peace to be proclaimed as observed. And if any be found com-