1263.

Aug. 1. Grant to Simon de Monte Forti the younger of all the lands late of John Mansel in England, to hold until the said John return to England, and the king restore them to him, so that the said Simon do to the chief lords of the said fees the services due.

Aug. 3. Commitment, during pleasure, to Giles de Argenteyn of the castle and town of Windesor, and the manors of Cokham, Braye and Kenyton, rendering as much at the Exchequer as Aymo Thurumbert, who had the keeping of them used to render at the Exchequer.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Mandate to the said Aymo to deliver them to him.

Aug. 3. Mandate to Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford, as the king has taken the homage of Gilbert de Clare, son and heir of Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester, tenant in chief, for all the lands which his father held in Wales, to cause him to have seisin of the castles of Kerdif, Newport and Lantrissain with the other castles, fortalices (forcelettis) and lands late of his father in the keeping of the said Humphrey.

Aug. 5. Mandate to Alan la Zuche, justice of the forest on this side Trent, and all keepers of forests and parks on this side Trent that when queen Eleanor passes through the said forests and parks, or sends her huntsmen there, they shall let them take, at the discretion and mandate of Giles de Argentein, venison to the use and reasonable estover of the said queen.

July 6. Presentation of John de Midelton to the church of Lydham, directed to the bishop of Hereford.

Aug. 6. Whereas the king is bound to love with special affection the liberty and security of churches, and desires to protect ecclesiastical persons and their goods; by the counsel of the nobles he commands John de Eyvill, keeper of the peace in the county of York, as he loves his body and his goods, to defend ecclesiastical rights, the prelates and ecclesiastical persons, as well religious as secular, and their men and goods in the said county, not permitting them to suffer injury in their persons or goods by any persons cleric or lay, at the mandate of anyone, against ecclesiastical liberty or immunity; and if anything be taken from them by violence through his default, he shall answer for it. The king wills also that collations to churches in the said county by persons who are not the patrons, or made by their patrons contrary to the custom of the realm, shall not be valid. All which things he is to cause to be publicly cried throughout the county.

The like is written to all keepers of counties through the realm of England.

Aug. 7. Commitment, during pleasure, by the counsel of the nobles of the council, to John Giffard of the castle of St. Briavel, and the forest of Dene, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Aug. 5. Protection without clause, until a fortnight after Michaelmas, for Master Giles de Avenebiry, treasurer of Hereford, Stephen Banastre, William de Kyngeston, Master William de Ludelawe, Stephen de Gurunvill, Henry de Hauek . . . and Adam Beyvin.