Restitution by the counsel of the magnates, to William de Wisery of all the lands which he had of the gift of Baldwin, earl of Devon, and which were seized by certain persons by occasion of the late contention in the realm.

Aug. 8. Appointment, by the counsel of the nobles, of John le Bel to appraise by jury the fruits and crops of the lands of the bishopric of Salisbury, lately void, which the king caused to be cultivated at his own expense, and when appraised to sell them, and answer for the profits thereof at the Exchequer; with mandate to all bailiffs and other tenants of the bishopric to be of aid and counsel to him, and every bailiff is to have before him in his bailiwick at his mandate juries by whom the business may be well and quickly done.

Safe conduct until the Nativity of the Virgin, for John de Bayloll and his household who wishes to observe the constitutions made at Oxford and to come to the king offering to stand to the judgment of the nobles (stare judicio procerum) if he has committed any excesses contrary to the said provisions.

The like for Hugh son of John de Bayloll, who is coming to speak with the king for his father; and his household.

The like, by the counsel of the nobles, for Hugh Cossa and Stephen Germani, burgesses of the town of the castle of Limoges, coming for the commonalty of their town on an embassy to the king, and Master Peter, canon of Limoges, king's clerk, their fellow, and Stephen de Vernaco, priest, the bearers. And no one is to presume to examine, break or open the letters they bear with them, as there is nothing in them contrary to the king's dignity.

Aug. 10. Commitment, during pleasure, by the counsel of the nobles, to Hamo le Estraunge of the counties of Salop and Stafford, rendering as much at the Exchequer as James de Aldithele used to do. Mandate to Roger de Somery to deliver them to him.

Aug. 7. Commitment as above to John de Warreuna of the castle of Pevense. Mandate to Hanekin de Witsand, constable of the said castle, to deliver it to him, as he loves his body.

Aug. 10. Confirmation of a covenant made between Nicholas de Sancto Mauro and Alda late the wife of Adam Paynel, tenant in chief, touching the marriage of the heirs of the said Adam, which the king granted heretofore to the said Nicholas.

Protection without clause, until the feast of St. Edmund, for Hugh son of Gerard de Langeston.

The like, until Easter, for Geoffrey de Leziniaco, the king's brother.

Aug. 13. Safe conduct, until the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, for Geoffrey de Langeley, coming to the king in England.

Mandate to Alan la Zuche, justice of the forest on this side Trent, to cause John son of John to have in the forest of Bernewode... Vacated.
