Sept. 18. Ratification of a truce made by R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, Henry son of the king of Almain, John, earl of Warenne and others with Llewelin son of Griffin, until Martinmas; and those in the castle of Gannoc are to furnish themselves with victuals until then by one boat of twelve oars or less. [Foedera.]

Safe conduct for the envoys of the said Llewelin coming to a parley three weeks after Michaelmas. [Foedera.]

MEMBRANE 1.

Sept. 18. Grant to John de Warenna of all the lands which could fall to him of the lands of Normans within his fee.

Memorandum that on the 18th September the king retired from Westminster to parts beyond seas, and the great seal remained in the keeping of Master Nicholas, archdeacon of Ely, and while the king was beyond seas nothing was sealed therewith except cursory writs, to which the witness was H. le Despenser, justiciary of England, except the following writs. [Foedera.]

Commitment, during pleasure, to John de la Haye of the towns of Winchelsee and la Rye, so that he deliver the issues to the constable of the castle of Dover for the munition of the said castle.

Mandate to Michael de Meynill to deliver the said towns to him. Mandate to the said John to attend to the business and the king will allow him the said issues when he has paid them to the said constable.

Mandate to the said constable to receive the said issues and by view of lawful men, apply them to the munition of the said castle; and he will be answerable for the same in his account at the Exchequer.

Simple protection without clause, until Easter, for the prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England.

Sept. 23. Mandate to Nicholas de Criollis, as the king has not yet provided a sheriff in the county of Kent, to attend to the keeping of the said county and the hundred of Middelton until further order. And he is to deliver all the issues he receives to the constable of the castle of Dover for the munition of that castle by tallies made between them, so that by view of the said Nicholas the constable can answer thereof at the Exchequer.

Sept. 28. Simple protection without clause for one year for the abbot of Westminster.

Teste, the said H. le Despenser.

MEMBRANE 1—(Schedule).

Sept. 21. Whereas the king is informed by an inquisition made by William de Weylond, escheator on this side Trent that Henry Lovel held in chief by barony, and that Richard Lovel his son is his next heir, and of full age, the king has taken the homage of the said Richard and restored to him the lands which the said Henry held in chief; and he commands Hugh le Despenser, justiciary of England, to command
