moiety on the close of Easter, the king has restored the said lands to him, and William de Welond, escheator on this side Trent, is commanded to give him seisin thereof, saving to Maud late the wife of the said Henry her dower.

Grant to William de Valencia the king's brother that if Stephen de Cressy died seised of any lands which ought to be the king's escheats, the king will assign them to him in fee by a reasonable extent, in compensation of his fee at the Exchequer; so that their yearly value be deducted from his said fee.

Membrane 2d.

Oct. 25. Windsor.

Mandate of Peter de Sabaudia requesting him to use diligence to the king of France, so that the estimate of money wherein the said king is bound to the king, may be made quickly, in order that the king may have the said money with all speed, also he is to provide with John Mansell, to whom the king is writing, by the view and counsel of Master H. de Cand, if he can attend to this personally to the matter, for the pawning of the jewels which the king has in those parts and certify the king thereof as soon as possible; also he is to be prepared to give the king counsel when required.

The like to John Mansell, treasurer of York, except the last clause.

Notification to the queen of France that the king has appointed P. bishop of Hereford, P. de Sabaudia and J. Maunsell treasurer of York, to procure the said estimate to be made quickly; and as the king thinks that the matter will be furthered by her mediation, he requests her to use her influence with her lord, as the said proctors will explain.

The like to the countess of Provence.

Mandate to John la Warre, as Peter de Sabaudia has now committed his castle of Pevensey to Edward the king's son, not to molest the men therein and to give safe conduct to Edward's men coming and going to or from the castle; and if he finds any plotting against (insidiantes) the said castle, he is to remove them.

Oct. 28. Windsor.

Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer that if the citizens of London present to them any person to be elected mayor, they shall by no means admit him without the king's special mandate.

Mandate to the constable of the castle of Porecestre to permit the wife of Reynold son of Peter to dwell in the castle until the disturbance in the realm be appeased.

On Sunday the feast of the Apostles Simon and Jude there were handed to John de Kam, yeoman of Edward the king's son, eleven pairs of letters to take beyond seas, to wit, one patent of 1000£, wherein the king is bound to the duke of Brumescvic, two letters procuratorial, and eight letters close, to wit, to the queen of England, the queen of France, the countess of Provence, Edmund the king's son, P. bishop of Hereford, P. count of Savoy, John Mansell, and Master H. de Gandavo.