end of that term all the corn and stock thereof, as well of ploughs as of other things, put there by him, remain to him wholly and quietly for the said munition.

By K. and Hugh le Bigod.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to cause him to be quit of the issues of the said manors, and to cause this to be enrolled.

March 18. Safe conduct, until Saturday before Mid-Lent, for all those who, on behalf of Simon de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, and the barons, and others, his adherents, are coming to Brackele to treat of peace; as R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, Master Nicholas, archdeacon of Norfolk, and John de Valentinis, envoy of the king of France, and the said Simon and his adherents, with the king's assent, have arranged that a treaty of peace shall be held there between the king and them.

March 20. Simple protection until Michaelmas for the abbot of Messenden. The like for the prior of Lantonay without Gloucestre.

March 26. Simple protection, without term, for the dean, canons and chapter of Salisbury, at the instance of Walter de Merton, canon of Salisbury.

March 27. Request to the tenants of the abbey of St. Peter, Gloucester, to contribute an aid to the abbot and convent, for the relief of its debts.

Simple protection for one year for the said abbot and convent.

March 27. Pardon, at the instance of the Friars Preachers of Oxford, to John de Preston of his outlawry for the death of a Roman killed at Pesie, co. Berks, and of all other trespasses of robbery and crime wherewith he is charged to this date.

March 20. Appointment of R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, and Master Nicholas, archdeacon of Norfolk, as the king's proctors to treat at Brackele, in the presence of John de Valentinis, knight, and envoy of the king of France, with those who, on behalf of Simon de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, and the barons and others, his adherents, have been sent, as was lately agreed at Kenilworth.

Power to the said proctors to threat of peace accordingly; and the king will ratify whatever they see fit to do by the counsel and assent of the said John.

March 25. Grant, for the weal of the souls of the king, his ancestors and successors, to the prior and convent of St. Frideswide's, Oxford, of 100s. a year at the exchequer of Michaelmas, to wit, 5 marks for the maintenance of a chaplain celebrating divine service daily in the said church in honour of St. Frideswide, and 2½ marks for the maintenance of four wax candles burning day and night round her shrine in the said church for ever.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Nicholas, Salisbury.
