Membrane 16—cont.

April 2. Safe conduct until Palm Sunday for Peter de Monte Forti and his household and goods, coming to Brackele, to meet the king's envoys.

Protection, without clause, until Michaelmas, for Richard de Hereford.

The like, until Whitsunday, for the abbot of Thame.

Whereas by reason of the present disturbance of the realm, it is necessary that the castle of Salisbury be munitioned for the security of the king and those parts, the king commands the knights and free men of the county of Wilts, requesting them to be intendant to Ralph Russel, the sheriff of the county, in all things pertaining to the munition of the castle and the preservation of those parts. The king wills nevertheless that those who hold of him in chief do the service due to the king in his present expedition.

April 4. Commitment during pleasure to Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex, of the keeping of all the lands of Robert son of Nigel at Gifthele.

Protection without clause, until Michaelmas, for Master Thomas de Wymundeham.

The like for the following:

Pernell de Vyvona, until Whitsunday.

The abbess of Wylton, until Midsummer.

Cecily de Ferrariis, until Michaelmas.

The abbess of Alnestowe until Michaelmas.

The prior of Daventre, until Midsummer.

The abbot of Osney, until Michaelmas.

Peter de Wyntonia, until Michaelmas.

The men of the manor of Faluesle, until Michaelmas.

The prior of St. Andrew's, Northampton, until Michaelmas.

The abbot of St. Albans, until Michaelmas.

William Braibof, until Michaelmas.

Safe conduct until Whitsunday for Randolf de Aker and Antony Bek, going on a message of the king; for their household.

Protection until Michaelmas for William Braibof.

Membrane 15.

April 6. Notification that Roger le Convers, keeper of the king's arms, delivered by order of the king to Gaillard de Solers, one coat of mail (lorica) with steel chausses and coat; to Bertram de la Dywe, the like; and to John de Grey, one helmet (galeam), of the king's gift.

April 10. Safe conduct until Easter for Humphrey de Boun the younger with his household and goods, coming to the king, wherever he may be in England, to treat touching matters affecting the king, Edward his son and the said Humphrey.