1264.

Membrane 15—cont.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for:
- The abbot of Pipewell.
- Alice de Armenters.
- Robert de Wauton.
- John le Sauvage.
- John de Bek.
- The abbot and convent of St. Mary de Pratis, Leicester.
- The king's men of Boudon and Haverberg.
- Nicholas de Hastings.
- The bishop of Durham.
- The abbot of Dorkestre until Midsummer.

April 13. Remission to Ralph son of Ralph burgess of Northampton, for a fine of 40 marks, whereof he has paid in the wardrobe 20 marks, of the king's indignation and rancour conceived against him for persisting with the king's adversaries in the town of Northampton in the assault which happened lately between the king and his said adversaries; and grant to him that, with his household who were with him before the said assault at his houses in that town, he may return and stay there, and he and his heirs have his lands within and without the said town which he had before his trespass as he had them before; on condition, however, of their good behaviour.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for:
- The abbot of Peterborough.
- Master Roger de Seyton, until the Ascension.
- The abbot of Gerudon.

Safe conduct until Easter for Robert de Well[es], coming to the king wherever he may be in England.

Simple protection without clause until Easter for him.

By Philip Basset.

The like for the prior and convent of Coventre.

[In the margin.] See a schedule for certain lands given.

MEMBRANE 15—(Schedule).

Memorandum touching 20l. of rent which Bertrand de Crioll used to render to Thomas de Ber . . . . out of the manor of Overlaunde to the use of Sir Henry Malemeins.

Item touching the manor of Wikham which is worth 20l. and was of . . . . . le Butiller, to the use of Sir Simon de Craye, the elder.

Item touching the land of Lenham late of Nicholas de Haulo worth 20l. to the use of Sir John de Rokesle.

Item touching a carucate of the land of Grenethe late of Matthew de Hastings, to the use of Sir Robert de Cheney.

Item touching the manor of Pecham wholly, with two carucates of land late of John de Pecham to the use of Sir William de Detlinges.

Item touching the land of Tilemanston, late of William de Titindene, to the use of Sir Roger de Chirlaunde, worth 10l.

Item touching the land of Hardres, late of Robert de Hardres, to the use of Sir Guncelin de Badelemere, worth 20l.