1264.

Membrane 12—cont.

Protection and safe conduct until Michaelmas for William de Norburg, clerk.

The like for John de Steingreve.

Mandate [reciting the above order of withdrawal on Membrane 17] to the chancellor and university of Oxford to return to Oxford.

Mandate to the mayor and good men of Oxford, when the chancellor and university return, to receive them courteously and treat them as well as possible and permit them to enjoy their accustomed immunities, customs, liberties and privileges.

Commitment during pleasure to Richard de Shyreburn, king's clerk, of the lands late of R. de Quency, earl of Winchester, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Vacata [because] surrendered.

The like to Roger de Donecastre, king's clerk, of the abbey of St. Augustine, Bristol.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Master Benedict, clerk of the church of Cloyne, coming to the king with letters patent of the chapter and announcing the death of D. sometime bishop of that place, has licence to elect.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for the following:—

Bartholomew de Reinham and William de Reynham, his son.

Edward de Westmonasterio.

Signification to the échevins and good men of Seynterom that, as the disturbance in the realm is by the co-operation of God settled, and peace made between the king and his barons, the merchants of those parts, may safely come to the realm with money, goods and merchandise, as they used to do.

The like to the échevins and good men of Gand, Liège, Hu, Ipre, Brussels, Malignes, Bruges, Seyntrom and Loveyn.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for the following:—

The abbot and convent of Thorneton.

John parson of the churches of Cestreton and Boby.

Mandate to Thomas de Kinn’, Benedict Dod, Walter le Pessuner, Ralph son of Ralph, Adam de Stamford, William de la Fontaine, Alan Plumbe, John le Especer, William son of Michael, John Sampson, John son of Eustace, Walter de Belond, Gervase Sampson, Henry de Charewrth, Ralph de Ardern, William de Eboraco, Peter le Vineter, Robert son of Henry, John le Estreis, Abel le Draper, John le Lorimer, Robert Bote, Robert le Clerc, and William de Estoremwrth, burgesses of Northampton, to protect the Jews who lately on account of the disturbance of the realm and especially on account of the battle at Northampton and have not since dared to leave it, whereby the king is suffering no small loss; as, by the grace of God, peace has been