1264.
June 16. Simple protection without clause until Christmas for David, abbot of Seleby, and the convent of that place.

June 15. Commitment to Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, of the wardenship of this instant fair of Boston.

June 18. Mandate to all of the county of Kent to attend with all their posse to keep the peace, when required by Fulk Payforer, to whom the king lately committed the keeping of the county and of the hundred of Middelton in the form provided by the king and his barons after the settlement of the late disturbance, as the king understands that on account of that disturbance, plunderings, burnings and other enormities are perpetrated daily in the county since the proclamation of peace.

June 18. Whereas by the counsel of the barons the king has committed to Fulk Payforer the said county and hundred in the form provided by the king and his barons, so that he deliver the issues thereof to Henry de Monte Forti, the king's nephew, towards the munition of the castle of Dover; the king commands the said Henry to deliver the said county and hundred to him to keep, and when the king knows how much he has delivered to the said Henry for the munition, that shall be allowed to him at the Exchequer.

June 17. Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for William de Plumpton.

To Eleanor, consort of Edward the king's son. As the king wishes that she shall retire by all means from the castle of Windsor where she now is, he commands her to go out with her daughter, John de Weston, her steward, William Charles, her knight, her ladies, donzels (domicellis) and the rest of her household, harness and goods, and to come to Westminster to stay there, until the king shall make further order; and not to fail as the king undertakes to excuse her to E. her lord and will keep her harmless, and receives them into his safe conduct. [Fædera, with errors.]

Also Joan, consort of William de Valencia the king's brother, has been commanded to leave the said castle with her household, harness and goods, and go to some convenient religious or other place near those parts, until God delivers her of the offspring wherewith she is great; and the king has received them into his safe conduct.

And Matthias Bezilles has been commanded to retire from the said castle and come to the king.

June 18. Mandate to all of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon to assist with all their posse when required by John de Scalariis, to whom the king on the settlement of the late disturbance committed those counties, to keep the peace there, in the same terms as above in the case of the county of Kent.
