1264.

Membrane 10—cont.

Mandate to Thomas de Moleton, when there shall be a sheriff elected in the county of Cumberland, to cause the name of the sheriff to be put in the letters patent which the king sends to him, and to let the king know the name. And the letters were handed to John servant of Robert son of Thomas to take to the said Thomas.

Mandate to Richard de Bachingeden, Henry de Bradele and Richard de Hereford to elect a sheriff in the county of Hereford, receive his oath, and let the king know his name. And the letters were handed to William de Ollneye, yeoman of Richard de Baginden.

Commitment in the same manner to Richard de Harington of the counties of Warwick and Leicester.

Mandate to William Bagod to deliver them to him, as above.

The like to William de Staunton of the counties of Somerset and Dorset.

Mandate to Brian de Gouiz, keeper of the peace, as above.

Mandate to Philip Basset, or his sub-sheriff, to deliver them to him, as above.

Whereas a compromise of peace has been made between the scholars of the university of Oxford and the burgesses of that town touching all trespasses, contentions and discords between them lately had, saving those things which pertain to the king's crown and dignity, as is more fully contained in the said compromise; the king, of his grace, releases for him and his heirs to the said scholars the said things which pertain to his crown and dignity by reason of the said trespasses.

Pardon, at the instance of Robert de Insula, to Thomas de Blickeling for the death of Roger de Corpesty and Robert Taly.

Letter to B. archbishop of Canterbury, expressing the king's indignation at his refusal to commit to some discreet persons of the realm power to examine and confirm the election of Master Walter Gifford as bishop of Bath and Wells, especially as the king has detained him from coming to the archbishop because the ways to France are not safe for Englishmen at present; and summoning him to return to his duties in England or delegate his powers to suitable persons in the realm, otherwise his emoluments will not be allowed to go out of the realm. If necessary, the king is ready to grant him a safe conduct. [Reader, where the word perennium should be premium.]

Safe conduct until the Assumption, by the counsel of the barons, for Master Hugh de Mortuo Mari, clerk of B. archbishop of Canterbury, and his household in coming to England, if the archbishop will send him in the matter of the election of the bishop of Bath and Wells.

Safe conduct for Joan the king's sister, consort of William de Valencia, as she is about to retire by the king's command from the castle of Windesor, for herself and her own usual household in the said castle with her, her horses and goods.

Notification to Master Hugh de Mortuo Mari, that if B. archbishop of Canterbury, his lord, sends him to England on the affairs of the archbishop or of his church [on the matter of the election of Bath and