Membrane 10—cont.

Wells, underlined as deleted], the king is sending the said Hugh a safe conduct on condition that he brings nothing with him that could be prejudicial to the king, prelates or magnates, as if he does the king will repute the safe conduct as void. And when he comes to these parts the king will by the counsel of his magnates, make such provision touching his stay or recess, according as he shall hear from him, that it shall be well.

June 28.
St. Paul's, London.

To Drew de Barentin, constable of the castle of Windesor, William de Cheeny, Matthias Bezilles, Gerard la Grue, Robert de Twyt, William de Sancto Leodegario, Richard de Tyllebyry, Geoffrey de Childewyk, Matthew de Charneus, William de Synagou, Hugh de Troye, Giles de Wadeham, Geoffrey Gascelyn, William Arnaldi de Kadillak, Geoffrey Luterell, knights, Garcias, Picard the Balister, Nicholas de Wincele serjeants, dwelling in the munition of the said castle. Whereas the king has frequently commanded them to come to London, to speak with him, and they have put this off, as they say, for want of safe conduct, the king is sending to them William de Montchenesy and Ralph de Kamay to conduct them to London, under safe conduct until Monday the morrow of the Apostles Peter and Paul and throughout the whole of that day.

Safe conduct for the same period for Geoffrey Gascelyn and Rogo Gascelyn by Stephen Soudan, marshal of the household.

June 28.
St. Paul's, London.

Mandate to Nicholas de Molis and the English serjeants dwelling in the castle of Windesor, to stay until further order in the said castle after Drew de Barentin, constable thereof, and others, knights and serjeants, who are coming to the king, have retired; and in the presence of William de Montchenesy and Ralph de Kamays, the exhibitors of these presents, they are to swear that they will permit no one to enter the said castle.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Henry de Kirkeby, parson of the church of Wilmereslay.

Membrane 9.

June 28.
St. Paul's, London.

Writ de intendendo to the merchants and others coming to the fair of Boston in favour of Hugh de Turri, Robert de Linton and Emery Bucke, whom the king is sending there to make purchases for the wardrobe.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for the following:—
Hugh de Dyve.
William Badde.

June 2 (sic).
St. Paul's, London.

Commitment during pleasure to John son of John of the castle of Windesor, and the manors of Cocham, Braye and Kenyton with the seven hundreds, and the town and forest of Windesor, so that he answer for the issues as the Exchequer.

Mandate to Drew de Barentin.
Mandate to Nicholas de Molis.
Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the castle, the seven hundreds, the said manors and the town of Windsor.
The like to the verderers and foresters.