Safe conduct for a fortnight after the feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr for John de Grey and his household, horses and harness, coming to the king.

These letters were handed to William Cressy, knight of the said John.

The like, until St. James the Apostle, for Roger de Mortuo Mari, James de Aldithele, Roger de Leiburn, Roger de Clifford, Warin de Bassingburn, Robert de Tibetot, John de Muscegros, William de Ebroicis, Fulk son of Warin, John le Estraunge, Hamo le Estrange, Robert de Turberville, Hugh de Turberville, Thomas Corbet, Peter Corbet, Walter de Muscegros and other knights as well of the March as elsewhere, and their knights, together with their households, horses and goods which they bring with them.

This was committed to Roger le Aumener, squire of the bishop of Worcester. And for their safe conduct the king is sending to the March W. bishop of Worcester, to conduct them.

Commitment to Roger le Bigot, earl of Norfolk and marshal of England, of the castle of Oreford, in the form provided by the king and his barons.

Commitment during pleasure to Henry de Bradele and William le Rus, canons of Hereford, of the bishopric of Hereford, so that they deposit the issues and profits thereof in some religious house to the use of the said church, and answer for them at the king's mandate; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to them.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for Walter de Berksted.

Mandate to Emery de Aqua Blanca, guardian of the bishopric of Hereford, to deliver the said bishopric to the above Henry and William.

Mandate to G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, to deliver all the manors and possessions belonging to the said bishopric which his bailiffs are detaining to the said Henry and William, so that they may answer for them wholly.

Safe conduct until Michaelmas for Joan wife of Drew de Barentin with her household, horses and harness, going where she will in the realm.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for Jordan Norman.

Safe conduct until All Saints for the prior of Lenton coming to England to his priory; on condition that he bring nothing with him which could be prejudicial to the king, the prelates or barons or to the realm.

Simple protection without clause until All Saints for Peter de Winton.
