Membrane 4—cont.

Peter de Conkes, merchant of Bordeaux, has like letters of 7l. 4s. for six tuns of wine.

Commitment, during pleasure, to Brian de Gouiz of the castle of Shireburn, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Sept. 4. John son of John, constable of the castle of Windesor, has such letters patent of munitioning that castle as Hugh le Despenser for the castle of Oxford which are enrolled above.

Sept. 7. As the prelates and clergy of England have unanimously granted to the king a tenth of the profits of churches, part of which is already collected, but because of the distance the king cannot at present have it, but will have it without any doubt in a short time; the king by the counsel of his barons prays Thomas son of Richard, mayor of London, and the aldermen and commonalty of London with all affection, that they will grant to him for the urgent defence of the realm, as the king's clerks Hervey de Borham and Master Stephen de Holwell will explain by word of mouth, 50l. from every aldermanry of the city of London, as a prest, and deliver the money to the said clerks to bring to the king; and the king will repay it out of the said tenth by the quinzaine of Michaelmas and will ratify the security which the said clerks will give them by instruments of bishops or others.

Sept. 6. Commitment during pleasure, by the counsel of the barons, to John de Eyvill of the castle of Scardeburg, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

By K. the earl of Leicester, the justiciary, the bishop of London and H. de Borham.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Mandate to John de Oketon, sub-constable of the said castle, and the knights and others in the munition thereof, as they have not delivered the said castle to Henry de Hastings to keep, as the king commanded, at which the king is amazed, that as they would be at peace and enjoy their property, they deliver it to the above John by chirograph of the armour, victuals and other things found therein.

Sept. 7. Protection for Master Ellis de London and Mayner de Cantuaria, clerk, substituted by H. bishop of London, Master Richard de Mepham and Roger de Northwode to collect and keep in their place the fruits and profits of churches and other goods of alien and other clerks who are adversaries of the king in the diocese of Canterbury and their other benefices without the said diocese of the archbishop's collation, so long as they are so engaged.

Simple protection without clause until Michaelmas for John Crowe.

Sept. 8. Grant to Master Thomas de Weseham, king's surgeon, in consideration of his services and for a certain cross which he gave to the king, of 15l. yearly of land of escheats as they fall in; to hold to him and his heirs for ever.

Acknowledgement that Alan de Cambio of Canterbury delivered by the king's precept to Hugh le Despenser, justiciary of England, 33l. 10s. 3d. of the money pertaining to B. archbishop of Canterbury, out of the issues of the change of Canterbury.
