Romenhall for five years from Michaelmas 8 [rectius 48] Henry III; of the king's further grace, at the instance of Humphrey de Bohun the younger, of quittance for another five years at the expiration of the above term.

Presentation of Henry de Alvercote to the church of Hatfeld Talebot, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Reynold de Mohun; directed to W. [bishop] elect of Bath and Wells.

Sept. 26. Protection until Easter for the Friars of the Penance of Jesus Christ.
Canterbury. The like for the executors of William de Steingreve.

June 30. Safe conduct until the octaves of St. Edward the King for John de Oketon.
Canterbury. The like for John de Moisewell.

Appointment of Thomas de Moleton as captain and warden of the sea and maritime parts, and for the munition of the king's ships with wine, victuals and other necessaries against the invasion of aliens; with mandate to the barons and bailiffs of the Cinque Ports and others of the maritime parts to be of aid to him.

Grant to the prior and convent of Persour, for a fine of 50 marks which they will pay in the wardrobe at the feast of St. Edward, of the keeping of their abbey at its next voidance by the cession or decease of Elerius their abbot, for this turn, with all the issues thereof as well in tallages of their men as in lands and other things; saving to the king advowsons, wards, reliefs, and escheats.

Bond to Peter de Crusilys of Castel Sarrasin, merchant, in 26l. for 26 tuns of Gascon wine which Hugh le Despenser, justiciary of England, took from him for the munition of the king's ships at Sandwich against the invasion of aliens, to be paid on the morrow of All Souls.

Sept. 30. Grant to Henry de Lascy, king's serjeant, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Richard de Tuneslond, tenant in chief, with dowers when they fall in, and escheats, and the marriage of the heirs.
Canterbury. Protection until Christmas for the abbot and convent of Vergeus.

Sept. 1. Grant to Hugh le Despenser, justiciary of England, for a fine of 700 marks, (wherof he has paid in the wardrobe 100 marks, 500 marks will be deducted from his fee of 1000 marks which he receives yearly to maintain him in his office of justiciary, and the king has pardoned the other 100 marks) of the wardship of the manors of Knesall, co. Nottingham, and Wadenhou, co. Northampton, which are extended at 100 marks a year and are in the king's hands by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Edmund de Lascy, with advowsons of churches, escheats and other appurtenances, for seven years from Michaelmas,