1264.

Admission, as king's chaplain, of William de Faxanis, canon and priest of the church of St. Andrew, Vercelli, in consideration of the merits of his brother Master Simon de Faxanis, king's clerk, canon of Vercelli, professor of both laws.

Charter granting to John de Vallibus son of Alexander de Vallibus and his heirs a market every Friday at his manor of Rughagh, co. Suffolk, and a yearly fair on the eve, day and morrow of St. Bartholomew the apostle, if these be not a nuisance to neighbouring markets and fairs. Witnesses: the same as last above mentioned.

Jan. 27. Amiens.

Pardon, at the instance of Guy de Leziniaco, to Henry de Stodland for the death of Richard Blech.

Wednesday before the Purification. Amiens.

Notification that by a composition made between Louis, king of France, and the king, the said Louis is bound to give the king the cost of the maintenance of 500 knights for two years, as is more fully contained in the form of peace, but the king not wishing to wait longer, by the common counsel of good men accepts 134,000 pounds of Tours a sixth part to be paid at the quinzaine of the Purification, a sixth at the quinzaine of the Ascension, a sixth at the quinzaine of All Saints, and three like payments in the following year. And be it known that the king has now received of the total sum 76,000 pounds of Tours to be expended in the service of God or the church or for the utility of the realm of England. [Feder.]

Whereas the king is bound to John firstborn son of the duke of Brittany in 1,200 marks arrears of the money which the king assigned to him at the Exchequer as the estimated value of the land of Rychemund by occasion of the marriage of Beatrice the king's daughter his wife, whereof by the writs which he had thereof he has received nothing, as is said, and in respect of 800 marks to be rendered to him at Easter next; the king has granted to him that he will render to him one moiety of the said debt at the Exchequer on the quinzaine of Easter next, and the other moiety at the quinzaine of Michaelmas following; on condition that if he have received any part thereof, it be allowed. [Feder.]

Feb. 5. Boulogne.

Pardon, at the instance of brother John de Derlington, to Peter de Oulne for the death of Walter Bisop.

Grant to Matthias Bezil, sometime sheriff of Gloucester and constable of the castle there, that he and his heirs be quit of all accounts, reckonings and arrears due to the king for the time that he was sheriff and constable.

By K. and C.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to let him have such quittance.

Pardon, at the instance of brother John de Derlington, to Hugh Algar of Trowes for the death of Peter de Byskeley and of his consequent abjuration of the realm.

Stephen Scoth has a like letter for the death of Roger de Brho of Ditton.