Membrane 2—cont.

Feb. 23. Quittance for life of Master Henry de la Wade, the king's cook, from all manner of suit at the court of Cochem and Braye, and also at the swainmote there, on account of the lands which he holds in those manors.

Licence for Ralph de Bakepuz and his heirs to enclose his house of Ceddre, co. Somerset, with a wall of stone and lime, and to crenellate it at their will.

Feb. 28. Presentation of William de Luton to the church of Langebergh, in the king's gift by reason of the land and heir of John de Gotesden being in his hand; directed to the bishop of Worcester.

Feb. 28. Licence for Richard Foliot and his heirs to enclose the dwelling place of his manor of Grymeston, co. Nottingham, with a dyke and a wall of stone and lime and to crenellate it at their will.

The like for Ellis de Rabayn as to the dwelling place of his manor of Waylim, co. Dorset.

Feb. 28. Bond to the treasurer of the Temple, Paris, in 120 marks which he, at the instance of M. queen of France, paid to the brethren of Hornchurch for 120 marks which they lent to Edmund the king's son at Dover when the said Edmund was in the munition of the castle there; and promise to pay the said sum to the said treasurer a month after Easter.

Membrane 1.

Feb. 28. Presentation of Master William de Fiscampis, the king's physician to the church of Aungre, void by the death of Walter de Rudham, sometime rector, and in the king's gift by reason of the lands in England belonging to the priory of Rumilly being in the king's hands on account of the voidance of that priory; directed to the bishop of London.

Grant to Robert de Huntingefeld, cook of Margaret, queen of Scotland, who brought the first tidings of the birth of the last child of that queen, that the king will provide for him in 10L yearly of land out of the wards or escheats when they fall in.

Whereas the king has pardoned to Roger de Leyburn all his rancour against him and all trespasses committed by him during the late disturbance of the realm because of the non-observance of the Provisions of Oxford, he has granted to him as a further grace that he will answer for him to all who wish to proceed against him by occasion thereof and will keep him harmless.

This letter was handed to the said Roger by the hand of H. le Bygod.

The dean and chapter of Kilfenora (Finnabren') have licence to elect by Denis de Finnabren' their fellow canon, coming to the king with letters patent of the chapter.

The dean and chapter of Clonfert have the like by Gilbert de Clonferten', their messenger.