Membrane 29. (Schedule 2)—cont.

Leicester, concerning the lands which the earl marshal sometime her husband had in Ireland and Wales, whereof she has had no dower, and of her loss through the king's long detention of her said dower; and to make such assignment to her for her said dower and losses that before God and men the king may be held to be absolved.

Membrane 28.

Nov. 18. Windsor. Royal assent to the election of Stephen de Wiontonia to be mayor of that town.

Nov. 24. Dunstable. Because for very urgent business the king is directing his steps with all speed to Oxford, whereby he cannot come personally to Northampton at this instant quinzaine of Martinmas; he commands the earls, barons, knights, and others about to meet there by his command on the said day to come to him at Oxford with all speed, as Hugh le Despenser, justiciary of England, whom he is sending to the parts of Northampton for this purpose, will more fully declare.

Protection for seven years for the brethren of the hospital of St. Mary Magdalene for lepers, Dunestaple, their men, lands, goods, rents and possessions.

Pardon at the instance of John de Bernevall who is in the king's keeping, to Richard son of Robert de Stanrock for the death of Geoffrey Poynnaunt, and of any consequent outlawry.

Nov. 24. Dunstable. Whereas the king heretofore granted to Peter de Monte Forti 50l. a year at the Exchequer until he should provide for him or his heirs to that amount yearly in lands, in exchange for a quit claim which the said Peter made to the king of all right in the woods belonging to his manor of Rydelyngton, which he holds of the fee of the earl of Warwick, and which woods the king holds within the forest of Roteland; and whereas the king has now granted to the said Peter the manor of Garthorp, late of William de Gaugy, deceased, who held it in chief of the king's gift as an escheat of the land of the Normans, to hold to the said Peter in part of his assignment of the said 50l. yearly of land, so that 30l. a year be deducted from the said 50l. a year for the value thereof; and Cecily late the wife of the said William is dowered of a third part of the said manor, whereby a third part of the value of the said manor is deducted for her life; the king grants to him, in compensation of such third part, 10l. a year at the Exchequer for her life, so that he shall receive at the Exchequer 30l. a year for her life and after her death 20l. a year.

Nov. 29. Oxford. Grant to the mayor and bailiffs and other good men of Winchester of murage for seven years from Christmas.
