Grant to William de Monte Forti of the prebend which John Maunsel had in the church of Bruges.

Mandate to the constable of the castle of Bruges to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

Grant to Amaury de Monte Forti, the king's nephew, of the treasurership of York, void by the death of John Maunsel, and in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of York; with mandate to the dean and chapter of York to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

Grant to Master John de Chichehull, archdeacon of London, of the provostship of Beverle void by the death of the said John Maunsel, with mandate to the chapter to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Feb. 6. Pardon, at the instance of Giles de Argentenn, to Roger son of Fulk, Westminster, for the death of Robert de Burnton, and of any consequent outlawry.

Feb. 10. Signification to the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield of the royal assent to the election of Humphrey, cellarer of Kenylewth, to be prior of that house.

Whereas the king ought to have paid 20l. last Michaelmas for 10 tuns of wine taken at London from Stephen de Castro, servant of Master Peter Gaylard, clerk of the count of Poitiers, by Reynold de Suffolk, chamberlain of London, as is testified by Adam de Novo Mercato, the steward, and he only paid 10l.; he promises to the said Peter to pay the remaining 10l. on the quinzaine of Easter next, together with 40l. in which he is bound for 20 tuns of wine of purchase taken from his said servant at London by the said chamberlain, as is testified by Walter de Creppinges, the steward.

The like promise to Geoffrey de Ligardello, chamberlain of St. Jean d' Angély, to pay at the same date 30l. residue of 60l. due to him for 30 tuns of wine of purchase taken at London from William his servant and clerk, by the said chamberlain as testified by the said Adam.

Feb. 10. Whereas at the time when the honour of Richmond was in the king's hands, the king exacted from Oliver de Albinac 50s. for the castle guard rent (pro uarda) which he ought to make to the castle of Richmond, for certain lands which he holds of the said honour, and the said Oliver paid at the Exchequer 5 marks whereby he made fine with the king to have an inquisition whether he was bound by reason of his said lands to do guard to the said castle, or not; the king for the indemnity of the said Oliver grants that neither he nor his heirs shall be distrained for the said lands henceforth, to do guard to the said castle, and that no prejudice shall arise by reason of this unless they are bound to do such guard of right.
