1265.

Presentation of Richard le Rus to the church of St. Michael on Wyre; directed to Master S. archdeacon of Richemond.

Acknowledgment of the payment by Joceus le Poteler and John Bonare by order of the king into the wardrobe at Canterbury, on Sunday the eve of Michaelmas last, to Master Henry de Gandavo, then keeper thereof, of 78L 11s. of the issues of the said Henry's granges of Croiniden and Herghes; and grant by the counsel of the magnates of the council for the indemnity of the said Henry, that if, after making his account for the time that he was keeper of the wardrobe, he prove to be bound to the king in arrears to that amount, the king will cause the said sum to be allowed to him, and if he prove to owe nothing, the king will cause the said sum to be paid to him, since of right it ought to be paid.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Sancto Johanne, to John Puterel of the king's suit for the death of Stephen de Jorz, and of any consequent outlawry.

Grant to the abbot and convent of Crek that they shall be quit of two parts of a suit at the king's court of Hagnet for lands which they hold in Sutherek of the gift of William de Bodham by charter of the said William and confirmation of the king; so that they and their successors render mark yearly at the Exchequer of Easter.

Feb. 20.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for the burgesses of Shrewsbury.

Westminster.

Acknowledgment of the payment by David, abbot of Seleby, into the wardrobe on Thursday after St. Botolph, 48 Henry III, at St. Paul's, London, to Master Henry de Gaunt, then keeper of the wardrobe of 33L 6s. 8d., in part payment of 80 marks whereby the prior and convent of Seleby made fine to have the keeping of their house during its voidance by the cession of Thomas sometime abbot of Seleby; and also of the payment by the said David, by the hand of John de Kirkeby, on Thursday before St. Peter's Chair, [4]9 Henry III, to Masters Robert de Beverie, Alexander the Carpenter and John de Spalding, keepers of the works of Westminster, of 20l. in full discharge of the said sum of 80 marks, of which 20l. the said John received a tally there from the said keepers.

Feb. 18.

As it appears by inquisition made by Simon de Hedon, sometime sheriff of Nottingham, John de Lek and John de Weston, then coroners of that county, that 100s. which the burgesses of Nottingham for a long time past have been accustomed to render to the sheriffs of that county, were paid to the use of the king to Philip Mark, sometime sheriff of Nottingham, of grace, to wit, to have his good will and for the maintenance of their liberties and that their liberties might not be invaded, and not as a due, and that the said sum was first paid of the time when the said Philip was sheriff of that county; the king, for a fine of 50 marks which the burgesses have paid in hand into the wardrobe, has remitted to them and their heirs for ever the demand of the said 100s. and quitclaims them in respect of the same.

Feb. 18. Pardon to Peter de Monte Forti the elder, Henry Murdak, Henry son of Henry Murdak, William son of Henry Murdac, Robert de Monte Forti, Peter de Monte Forti the younger, Norman de Arcy, Adam,