1265.

daughter of Robert le Constable, wishing to do him grace, has committed to him the keeping of two parts of the said manors during his minority, so that he render at the Exchequer 22l. 17s. 6d. a year, and further do the service due for the said manors; saving to the king wards, marriages, reliefs, knights’ fees, dowers when they fall in and all other things which may fall in of this wardship.

Quittance to John le Blund, viewer of the works of the castle of Gloucester, for long service, from all tallage so long as he be so engaged, with mandate to all bailiffs not to vex him contrary to this.

May 4. Commission to Martin de Littelbury, John de Aure and Simon de Grindham to enquire by the oath of men of Dorset as well as of Devon touching a fight lately had on the sea between the men of Lim and the men of Derlemme, wherein beatings, woundings, homicides and other trespasses on both sides were perpetrated, and the king has commanded the sheriffs of those counties to attach those whom they find guilty and give the names of and have the bodies of these before the king on the quinzaine of Holy Trinity wherever he may be in England, to answer for the said trespasses.

Commission to Master Thomas de Wymundham, Roger de la Leye, Robert de Fulham, or two of them, Hugh Pecche and Thomas de Bray to extend by the oath of good men of the counties of Salop and Stafford and Nottingham, the manors of Cummedove, and Wrfeld, co. Salop; Wlfrenham, Wygenton and Tamewrth, co. Stafford; and Stratton with the soke of Osewadbec, co. Nottingham; which the king heretofore committed to Henry de Hastinges and Ada his wife, deceased, to hold in tenancy for the third part of the earldom of Chester, to wit, how much they are worth yearly in demesnes, services, rents, villeinages, and other issues of land, together with the knights’ fees and advowsons of churches belonging to the said manors; and to enquire by oath of the same whether Henry de Hastinges, son of the said Henry and Ada, holds more in the said counties for the said third part, or not.

Protection, until Michaelmas, for William Ernaldi de Puteo, Arnald Reymundi de Gous and Domingo Johannis de Marsac, merchants of Bayonne, trading in the realm, their men, goods and merchandise, because in the time of the disturbance in the realm they were in no wise contrary to the king and the realm, but bore themselves faithfully; on condition that they do all the harm they can to the enemies of the king and the realm wherever these are found, until peace be made between the king and those of parts beyond seas.

May 6. Mandate to Thomas de Fou, Walter Braund, William Braund, Gilbert del Punt, Roger son of Benedict, John de Luda, Osbert son of Giles, John de Paris, James del Punt, Jordan son of Giles, Henry son of Giles, Thomas son of Robert, Peter his brother, Henry Gupil, Walter de Croyland, Nicholas Munde, Nicholas Stoyle, William de Holegate, William de Hepham, John Coiti, Thomas le Parminter, John de Line’, John del Soler, and Martin le Cordewaner, citizens of Lincoln, to protect the Jews of Lincoln in their persons and goods against all persons, as, after the late disturbance in the realm, the king