Membrane 10—cont.

in the king's service keeping the archbishopric of York during its voidance, for the issues whereof he is bound to answer at the Exchequer, and is still attendant to his service.

Aug. 17. Presentation of Giles de Audenard to the church of Ridlington, Gloucester, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of Peter de Monte Forti, deceased, being in his hands; directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

Protection, until the octaves of the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, for William de Wendling, escheator on this side Trent, as he has to answer for the issues of the said escheatry at the Exchequer.

Safe-conduct, until that date, for him, in coming to the king; staying with him and going back.

Simple protection, until Easter, for the following:
- Peter de la Feld.
- Thomas de Valayns.
- William de Sturmi.
- Arnald de Bosco, who has been sick for three years, and took no part in the late disturbance in the realm.
- Walter Adrian.
- Robert de Eton.
- Gilbert son of Martin.

Safe-conduct for Simon son of Simon coming to the king, staying with him and going back again, to last until the parliament which is to be at Christmas next.

Protection, until Easter, for the executors of the will of Edward de Westmonasterio for the goods of the said deceased.

Simple protection until Easter for the following:
- The abbot and convent of Netley.
- The abbot and convent of Beaulieu Regis.
- Geoffrey de Scalariis.
- Giles de Wodham.
- The prior and convent of Bermundeseye.
- Adam Edred of Agmodesham.
- Brother John de Wilton, keeper of the priory of Montacute.
- William de London, chaplain.
- James de Berley.
- Alexander de Muntforte, serjeant of the queen.
- The prior and convent of Tykeford.
- The abbot and convent of Fountains.
- The prior of Drax.
- John Beril.
- Ebulo de Montibus.
- Henry de Norwico.
- Isabel de Gopeshull.
- William de Engleby.
- Walter Comyn.
- The prioress of Garinges.
- The abbot and convent of Fountains (sic).