MAEMBRANE 10—cont.

The like for John de Erminiaco, William Arnold, Arnald de Pans, Imerus Fevre, and Raymund Bos, merchants of Pergor' and Gascony.
The like for Peregrine Schapelein and John Hudberd.

Protection, until All Saints, for the following:
  John le Furner, merchant of St. Omer.
The abbot and convent of Wenling.

Commitment, during pleasure, to Roger de Leyburn of the Cinque Ports and the chamberlainship of Sandwich, so that he answer for the issues of the Exchequer as other wardens have done.

Simple protection, until Michaelmas, for Ralph de Bohun.
The like for Ralph le Especer, burgess of Gloucester, so long as he bear himself faithfully towards the king.

Safe-conduct, until the octaves of the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, for Stephen Auribad, going to the town of Winchelese, for the deliverance of a ship of his arrested there.

Simple protection, until All Saints, for John le Moine.

MAEMBRANE 9.

Aug. 24. Grant to Ellis de Roffa, marshal of the king's horses, of the lands in Cosseham late of Peter de Cosseham, who was an enemy of the king and Edward his son, during the late disturbance.

Simple protection for the following:
  The abbot of Eynesham, until Christmas.
  Oliver, parson of the church of Eltesle.
  John Button, reeve of Cumbe.
  Henry de Tunstall.
  John de Caynes.
  Master Giles de Avenebiry.
  Master Th. de Asseby.
  The master and brethren of St. Thomas of Acre in England.
  Roger de Bello Campo.
The prior and convent of Peeleg.
  Hugh de Radenore, until Easter.

Revocation of the presentation by the king while he was in the keeping of Simon de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, of John nephew of W. prior of St. Rhadagund's to the church of Kyngeston; and presentation thereto of Master Alexander de la Knolle; with mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury or his official to admit him.

Presentation of Roger de Messenden to the church of Hillindon, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Evesham, directed to the bishop of London.

Mandate to the mayor, bailiffs, good men and whole commonalty of Hereford, as well within the liberties of the bishop and the dean and chapter of Hereford, the prior of Hereford and the brethren of