Grant, during pleasure, to Hugh le Bigod of the manor of Pikering, with the castle, wapentake and other appurtenances, he rendering at the Exchequer as much as he used to render for the same.

Mandate to John de Roseles to deliver them to him.

Sept. 17. Commitment, during pleasure, to Stephen de Penesherst of the manor of John de la Haye the king’s enemy, of Burewel, to hold in his tenancy and keeping.

The like to John de Turberville of the manor of Bere, to hold in the same manner as the men of that town held it at farm, rendering at the Exchequer as much as the said men used to render.

Presentation of Simon de Creppinges to the church of Hemmegrave, in the king’s gift by reason of the lands and heir of Thomas de Hemmegrave tenant in chief, being in his hands; directed to the bishop of Norwich.

Safe conduct, until the feast of St. Andrew, for Master Hugh de Mortuo Mari, coming to the king in England and staying there at his own will.

Simple protection, until Easter, for the following:—
William, parson of the church of Mikelham.
The abbot of Gresteyng.

Grant to William de Ayette and Richard de Ewell of the wardships of the lands and heir of Thomas de Hemmegrave, tenant in chief, with knights’ fees, wards, relics, escheats, advowsons of churches, and dowers when they fall in, and with the marriage of the heir.

Confirmation of a grant by Edward the king’s son to Master Richard, his physician (fisico), of the manor of Preston, as the letters patent of the said Edward testify.

Grant to John de Warrenna, earl of Surrey, of the wardship of the manor of Cneshal, in the king’s hand by reason of the wardship of the lands of Edmund de Lacy, deceased, tenant in chief, being in his hands.

Mandate to Master William de Clyfford and Master William de Wygornia to assign a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter of York to Edmund de Mortuo Mari. When after the conflict at Lewes between the king and some of his lieges and Simon de Monteforti, earl of Leicester and his adherents, the king was in the keeping of the latter, the earl against the king’s will caused letters to be sealed with the king’s seal which he used at his will, containing that the king granted the treasurership of York to Emery de Monteforti, and commanded the chapter to grant him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter; but when the king resumed his powers, he revoked that grant and granted the treasurership to the said Edmund, and commanded the chapter to assign to him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter, which to his amazement, they have put off doing; and he now commands the above persons not to fail to do this.
